

WHERE THERE'S SMOKE—Children playing with matches was the apparent cause of this smoky blaze at the Tatco Inc., 582 E. Main St. The fire was reported to the Circleville Fire Department at 4:15 p.m. Tuesday and it took firemen over two hours to get the fire under control. A spokesman for the fire department said this morning that some of the men had to return to the fire scene later because one of the old tires had re-ignited. A burning tree in the area was also causing some concern. Since the company deals in used trucks, there was no damage listed. The tires which were burned had been discarded. Paul Vance, an off-duty fireman was called in to assist and two men from a volunteer fire department were at the place of business buying parts when the fire broke out.

Red Cross Aids Orphan Adoption

The Pickaway County Chapter, American Red Cross, and the adoption agencies have been receiving calls from families interested in providing homes for Vietnamese orphans.

The National Organization has advised that the International Committee of the Red Cross is co-ordinating activities of adoption agencies and government agencies in providing relief for refugees and assistance in arranging for care of orphans.

Due to the constantly increasing need for food, shelter and medical aid, an appeal for funds for this purpose has been issued by the International Committee.

A new toll-free number has been established for use of callers interested in adopting Vietnamese children, 800-368-1180. Persons who are interested in this project are urged to contact local adoption agencies.

The local Red Cross will be happy to relay any updated information as it is received.

500 Coal Trucks Join D.C. Protest

WASHINGTON (AP) — In one of the federal city's noisiest, most colorful demonstrations ever, more than 500 huge coal trucks rumbled outside the White House and the Capitol to protest the strip-mining legislation before Congress.

The trucks were accompanied Tuesday by some 2,000 miners, coal truck drivers and mine operators who claimed the legislation would cripple the coal mining industry and throw them out of work.

The protesters, most of them from the Appalachian states, arrived in a 30-mile long caravan which took four hours to wind its way through downtown Washington, where crowds of pedestrians watched in astonishment as the honking, grinding trucks paraded down streets more accustomed to limousines.

The leader of the parade was Scott Patton, 19, of Coeburn, Va. Patton's truck was a purple, eight-speed rig, 10-feet high and 22-feet long, capable of carrying almost 30 tons of coal, he said.

"The reason why we're here is that the legislation they've got in Congress is going to put us all out of work," said Hershell Pennington, 30, from St. Charles, Va.

The protested legislation has been approved in varying forms by both the House and the Senate and is now in a conference committee to resolve differences.

The bills would require strip-mine sites to be restored approximately to their original contours. Opponents claim these requirements would virtually eliminate strip mining on steep slopes.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, Ind.-Va., says the Interior Department predicts the legislation would eliminate 47,000 jobs and cause coal production to drop 40,000 tons a year.

President Ford vetoed a similar bill last December. The main reason for the demonstration was to encourage members of Congress to sustain Ford's position if the President again vetoes the bills, according to Jim Brown, steering committee chairman of the Appalachian Organization of Surface Miners and Truckers.

However, the claims of the protesters that the bill would force the closing of numerous mines and threaten thousands of jobs was challenged by Rep. Morris K. Udall, D-Ariz., the prime House sponsor of the bill.

Udall told a news conference the truck drivers and protesting miners were being used as pawns by segments of the coal industry opposed to the legislation.

Strip mine companies and other groups contributed $400,000 to finance the caravan, pay for hotel rooms and gasoline and give each protester $50 for spending money, sponsors of the demonstration said.

Senate Readies Energy Bill Without Price Hike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate appears ready to approve a bill aimed at forcing Americans to conserve energy without paying the sharply higher prices advocated by President Ford.

The bill would give the president standby authority to ration gasoline in the event of another boycott by petroleum-producing countries, and includes longrange power for the states to determine how best to meet federal conservation goals.

The Senate scheduled a vote today on an amendment to end federal controls on oil prices, a move sponsors concede would see the price of most U.S. oil rise from the current $5.25 per barrel to more than $12.

Meanwhile, the Justice Department said it is checking into rapid increases in coal prices but finds no evidence so far of any conspiracy to drive the prices up.

Competition in the coal and oil markets may have dwindled to the point that excessively high coal prices became possible, Joseph Sims, special assistant to Atty. Gen. Thomas E. Kauper, said in an interview.

In other energy developments: —More than 500 coal trucks wound through the nation's capital in a protest by Appalachian mine operators and mine workers against strip mining legislation they claim could cost them their jobs.

—The Navy announced that 10,000 barrels of crude shale oil produced at a Colorado reserve have been refined into military fuels.

—Democrats who control the House Ways and Means Committee discussed alternative forms of energy tax legislation without reaching final agreement, a participant said.

The broad conservation bill under consideration by the Senate contains two basic types of authority:

One is a series of standby powers under which the president, with congressional approval, could impose emergency measures during periods of acute energy shortages, such as the 1973-74 Arab oil embargo.

The other consists of complicated procedures for longrange state-federal conservation efforts, again subject to congressional approval.

Under the long-range plans, a state could require, for example, that gasoline stations close on Sunday, that decorative outdoor home lighting be extinguished, and that businesses limit their hours of operation to save energy.

The unusual part of the bill, prepared by the Senate Interior Committee, would allow each state to determine how it could best meet the conservation goals established by the Federal Energy Administration.

The measure is a substitute for Ford's conservation plan, which is aimed at raising fuel prices to encourage reduction in consumption.

North Viets Near Saigon

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — North Vietnamese troops fought their way into the heart of a provincial capital 40 miles east of Saigon today in the five-week-old Communist offensive's first attack on a major city in the capital region, the South Vietnamese command reported.

At the same time, more opposition politicians in Saigon went into hiding to avoid a further police crackdown on dissent following the bombing attack on Thieu's palace by an air force pilot, political sources said.

The attack on Xuan Loc, the capital of Long Khanh Province, began before dawn after a 2,000-round artillery barrage. Street fighting was reported around a church and the bus station, but later field reports said most of the North Vietnamese had been driven from the city, leaving small pockets of resistance.

Secret police reportedly moved on the homes of at least two opposition leaders hours after the apparent assassination attempt. The sources said the politicians had been warned by friends and had gone into hiding to avoid arrest.

The battle promised to be the first test of whether the demoralized South Vietnamese army could make an effective stand after its devastating retreat from the northern and central provinces. However, it was too early to tell whether the attack on Xuan Loc was the start of an offensive against Saigon itself.

The city is the headquarters of the 18th infantry division and an armored cavalry unit which have been under heavy North Vietnamese pressure in the area for several weeks.

Other North Vietnamese or Viet Cong forces overran a district capital near one of the Saigon government's few remaining footholds on the central coast and made a number of smaller attacks in the Mekong Delta. Most of the latter were reported between 70 and 120 miles southwest of Saigon.

In Cambodia, the Khmer Rouge insurgents cut the supply road and railroad between the Thai border and Battambang, the country's second largest city, and there was almost continuous fighting on the east bank of the Mekong River across from Phnom Penh and at Kompong Speu, an isolated provincial capital 30 miles southwest of Phnom Penh.

Premier Long Boret began picking up the reins of the government again after accompanying President Lon Nol abroad, but he refused to confirm or deny a report that he met Monday night in Bangkok with representatives of the Khmer Rouge.

Gen. Frederick C. Weyand, the U.S. Army chief of staff, returned to Washington from a survey visit to Saigon and recommended that President Ford ask Congress for $500 million in immediate additional military aid for South Vietnam, $200 million more than Ford requested in January.

But Sen. John G. Tower, the chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee and a leading backer of administration foreign policy, said the President would have to be "extremely persuasive" to get approval of any military aid for Saigon.

Administration sources expressed doubt that Ford would ask for the additional $200 million in view of the strong opposition that has already deferred action on his original request.

The United States has already provided $700 million for South Vietnam for the fiscal year ending June 30. Pentagon sources report all of this has been spent, and no additional money is available.

Solon Has Doubts On Aid

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John G. Tower says President Ford will have to be "extremely persuasive" to get Congress to approve emergency military aid funds for South Vietnam.

The Texas Republican is chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee and a principal backer of administration foreign policy.

He spoke to newsmen as Congress awaited recommendations from President Ford to a joint session of Congress Thursday night. Ford canceled his Tuesday night plans to attend a musical performance in order to work on his speech, which is expected to give the administration's views of what, if anything, the United States should do in Indochina.

As new demands were made that the administration reveal any secret agreements between the United States and Vietnam, administration officials told Senate and House committees Tuesday the President's decision on a U.S. plan of action will follow discussions today by the National Security Council.

State Department sources reported that Gen. Frederick C. Weyand, Army chief of staff, has recommended that the President ask Congress for $500 million in immediate additional military aid for South Vietnam.

The amount is $200 million more than requested by President Ford in January before the start of the North Vietnamese offensive and the withdrawal of South Vietnamese forces from all but the southern one-third of their country.

Administration sources expressed doubt that Ford will pass the $500-million proposal on to Congress in view of strong opposition which already has deferred action on a prior administration request for $300 million in additional aid. The United States already has provided $700 million in aid to South Vietnam in the current fiscal year.

Pentagon sources reported that the last of the $700 million now has been spent and that no additional money is currently available. Estimates of the amount of U.S. equipment lost by the South Vietnamese during their retreat ranges as high as $1 billion, though the Long Island newspaper Newsday reported Tuesday that the General Accounting Office set the loss at some $200 million.

Prosecutors Lay Out Data On Alleged Connally Bribes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prosecutors are laying out a web of circumstantial evidence in an attempt to bolster the story of their star witness in the bribery trial of John B. Connally.

Seven witnesses appeared in rapid-fire order Tuesday afternoon after defense lawyer Edward Bennett Williams concluded a day-and-a-half cross-examination of Connally, the man who says he gave the former Treasury secretary two illegal $5,000 gifts. The money allegedly was given Connally for his efforts in persuading the Nixon administration to raise milk prices.

Williams got Connally to admit he was uncertain about some details of his story, including whether or not a third $5,000 gift was made.

But then prosecutors put on the witness stand a hotel waiter, a bank clerk and others who supported various elements of Connally's story.

In 1971 Connally asked for $10,000 to give to Connally, said former dairy lobbyist Bob A. Lilly. He testified he gave Connally the money and later delivered another $5,000 when Connally said Connally wanted more. U.S. District Judge George L. Hart told jurors that Lilly's testimony doesn't prove what Connally eventually did with the cash.

In 1973, Lilly said, he told Watergate prosecutors about the money when he confessed to the illegal political activities of his organization, Associated Milk Producers Inc. of San Antonio, Tex. Connally says this confession set in motion a cover-up of the bribe.

Oct. 23, 1973: Lilly testified he arrived at the San Antonio airport at 2:30 a.m., hours after spilling his story to prosecutors in a Washington hotel room, and was surprised to find his boss Harold Nelson waiting for him. He told Nelson he had confessed to prosecutors.

Oct. 24: Telephone company records show a call was made to Connally's phone, charged to Nelson. Connally says Nelson told him Lilly had confessed.

Phone records show a call was made that afternoon from Connally's office in Austin to Connally's law offices in Houston. Connally says he told Connally about Lilly's confession.

Oct. 25: Assistant head waiter Sammie Barnett of the Sheraton Crest Hotel in Austin testified that he delivered breakfast to Connally's room. He says Connally and Connally were there, apparently alone. Connally says it was at this meeting he and Connally agreed to claim the $10,000 had never left Connally's bank vault.

Oct. 28: Phone company records show a call was made from Connally's home to Connally's home. Connally says he's not sure of the date, but that Connally called him and they agreed to replace the $10,000 with new money to fit the cover story.

Nov. 26: Connally testified Connally gave him a second $10,000, wrapped in newspaper, because the first batch of bills were too new to fit the cover story. They had been issued before Connally is supposed to have put them in the bank vault, Connally said.

Jobless Claims Decline

WASHINGTON (AP) — Forty-four states are paying fewer unemployment compensation checks as some industries begin recalling workers from layoffs.

The Labor Department said industry callbacks helped reduce the number of Americans receiving jobless benefits in the week ending March 22 to 6,484,000, a decline of 42,500 from the previous week.

Initial benefit claims in the week ending March 29 declined 7,000 from the previous week to a total of 530,600.

As the figures were announced Monday, a House Ways and Means subcommittee began a series of seven factfinding sessions before taking up proposals to provide additional weeks of jobless compensation to those who will exhaust their benefits under existing law.

In other economic developments: —The cost of maintaining a moderate standard of living for a typical urban family of four during the fall of 1974 was estimated at $14,300, an increase of $1,733 over the previous year. The same size family can live at an austere level for $9,200 or at a level allowing some luxuries for $20,800, the Labor Department said.

—Former Federal Reserve Board member Andrew F. Brimmer predicted the recession would deepen beyond the administration's expectations and called on the Fed to push the nation's banks into a more liberal lending policy.

—AFL-CIO President George Meany said he sees no end to the recession and urged union members to press for more government action stimulating the economy.

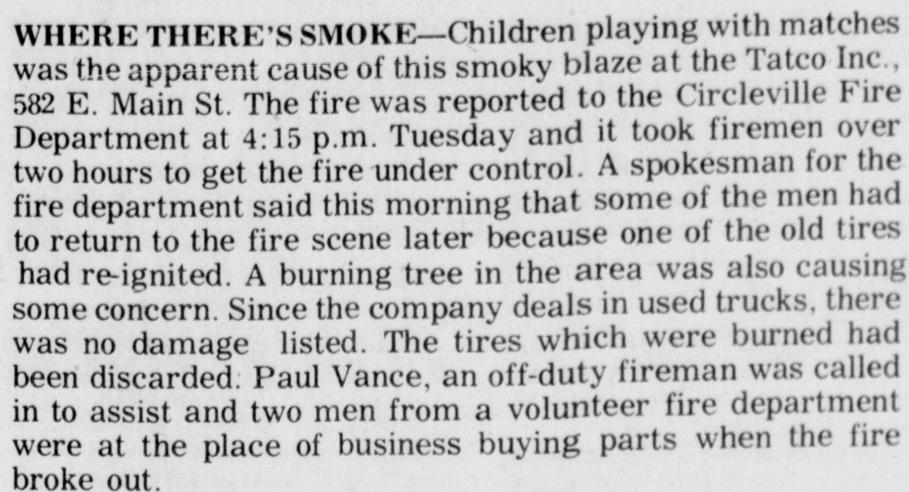

—The Council on Wage and Price Stability said it would investigate prices in the cereal and baked goods industry to determine why product prices are not coming down when the price of key ingredient commodities are falling.

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market added to Tuesday's gains today with a goodsize advance, encouraged by signs of a softening in interest rates.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials, up 6.34 Tuesday, had gained another 6.65 at 755.87 by noon today. Advances held a 2-1 lead over declines on the New York Stock Exchange.

Long-term interest rates trended lower today in a continuation of the strengthening in the bond market that began Tuesday. Brokers said the recovery encouraged investors who have been worrying about a possible renewed surge in interest rates.

At the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index was up .70 at 70.95.

Trading was interrupted for 26 minutes early in the session at the NYSE because of computer problems. It was the fourth time this year — and the sixth in the last 12 months — that equipment troubles had caused a trading halt at the exchange.

The NYSE's composite index showed a .34 gain at 43.22.

WASHINGTON (AP) — While ruling out military intervention, President Ford's press secretary acknowledged today that resigned President Richard M. Nixon had "confidential exchanges" in which he assured the Saigon government the United States would "react vigorously" to violations by Hanoi of the Paris peace agreements.

Rhodes Proposes Energy Authority With Loan Powers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes proposed an Ohio Energy Development Authority today to provide industry with low-interest loans to keep workers employed and to research for new energy sources.

"Energy is the lifeblood which guarantees Ohio's industrial jobs," Rhodes said in a statement prepared for a morning news conference. "Until our energy future is secure, jobs will not be secure."

Rhodes asked the legislature to approve the agency to "assure Ohio workers continuous employment."

The authority would make low-interest loans to:

- Convert boilers now using gas to coal.
- Build oil storage facilities.
- Build coal conversion facilities.
- Open more coal mines, eliminating much need for utilities to make expensive out-of-state coal purchases.
- Build energy generating plants.
- Install energy-saving equipment.
- Fund innovative energy technology.

The agency would have revenue bonding power to make low-interest loans and energy development loans.

In addition, Rhodes has invited governors to meet with him and Vice President Rockefeller in Washington Thursday to discuss energy problems.

The authority "will work first at alleviating current shortages. Then, in the long run, it will concentrate exclusively on energy development," he said.

The authority would also inspect energy usage around Ohio and recommend alternatives where it finds waste now as well as acting as a conduit for federal energy development funds.

Rhodes discussed the different types of energy available to Ohio:

Natural Gas—"Offers our fastest opportunity to help get people who have been laid off because of energy shortages back to work. We must help Ohio industry now using gas for nonessential purposes to switch to other fuels, such as coal."

Coal—"By expanding Ohio's coal production, we can increase supplies for industry and help eliminate the need for electric utilities to make out-of-state purchases."

Electricity—"This administration will work to prevent electric rate increases resulting from overly restrictive and unproven environmental controls."

Solar Energy—"The authority 'will be empowered to make low-interest loans for installation of solar heat in business establishments.'"

Welfare Recipients Attack Ohio Payments

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — An overflow crowd of welfare recipients and their supporters told state legislators Tuesday that welfare payments amount to less than half of the minimum subsistence level established by the state.

They demanded that Ohio double its benefits under the Aid to Dependent Children program.

Witnesses at an overflow public hearing of a House Finance Committee subcommittee said Ohio's payments are the lowest of any Great Lakes state. They said the level is too low to provide housing and food for children.

They argued that present welfare benefits total $2,508 annually for a family of four, while the subsistence level for a family that size in Ohio has been pegged at $5,184 a year.

A spokeswoman for the Ohio Coalition for Implementation of the Equal Rights Amendment testified that the present payments are sexist because they assume "that mothers — women — and their children are the only welfare recipients not deserving of a decent life."

"The proposed ADC payment level is so low that even if they remain at home with their children, women cannot provide for their children's basic needs of food, clothing and housing," said Barbara Janis.

"Yet, those few women who can find a low paying job are forced to either conceal the fact so that they can still receive the ADC payment, or to lose the payment."

"Every penny saved by this state in lowered payments (of ADC benefits) will be devoured in the treatment of child abuse, juvenile delinquency, remedial education and so on," she said.

"During the days of slavery, this nation counted each black person as only three-fifths of a human being for representation," said Kay McLandrich of Cleveland, representing Nurses Concerned for Life.

"But Ohio has done better," she said. "We count each poor person as only half of a human being. We expect them to eat only half the time."

She told the committee that the inadequate benefit level causes pregnant women to live on inadequate diets, jeopardizing the health of their unborn babies.

Free Health Assessment Clinic Will Be April 21-22

There will be a Free Health Assessment Clinic April 21 and April 22, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the 4-H and Grange Building. It is free to all adults, 18 years old and up, residing in Pickaway County, and will be by appointment only.

Appointments may be made either at the Pickaway County Agricultural Extension Office, 137 W. Franklin St., or at the Pickaway Senior Citizens Center, 430 Lancaster Pike.

At the Free Health Assessment Clinic each person's height and weight will be taken and recorded.

At the second station blood pressure will be taken, which is so important to prevent heart attacks and strokes.

At the third station, Blood Analysis, called SMA12 Blood Analysis, the following tests will be made on the blood samples by the Ohio Health Department: calcium, inorganic phosphorous, glucose, B.U.H. (Blood Urea Nitrogen), uric acid, cholesterol, total protein, albumin, total bilirubin, alkaline phosphatase, lactic dehydrogenase, SGOT (Serum Glutamic Oxaloacetic Transaminase).

At the next station the visual acuity and the glaucoma test will be given by an ophthalmologist from The Ohio State University.

Dr. Lu Conrad will have the podiatry station for counseling on excellent care of the feet.

The lung, cancer, heart and arthritis stations will be informative and educational, with literature to study and help prevent the causes of diseases in these areas.

All clients will receive positive or negative results, and the information will be sent to their physicians.

Counseling will be done by the Pickaway County Health Department after the health assessment, and follow up of the clients will be carried out by the Pickaway County Health Department for at least one year.

Patients must bring name and address of family doctor.

Urge CIA To Continue Sub Effort

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Central Intelligence Agency is being urged by the head of the congressional Joint Atomic Energy Committee to make another attempt to recover a sunken Soviet submarine from the floor of the Pacific Ocean.

Sen. John O. Pastore, D-R.I., who said his committee had been briefed on the CIA operation, said the spy agency "made some significant discoveries" when it raised part of the submarine last year.

Pastore refused to elaborate, but his comments appeared to support recent news accounts that the crew of the CIA-financed Glomar Explorer salvage ship recovered two nuclear-tipped torpedoes and other valuable intelligence information from the Soviet vessel which sank in 1968.

Pastore, who spoke with newsmen before entering a closed meeting with CIA Director William E. Colby Tuesday, said he would recommend the CIA recovery ship return to the wreckage site this summer to complete the operation. He called the mission "a classic example of what the CIA is supposed to be doing."

There is confusion over whether the CIA intends to make another recovery effort. CIA officials have been quoted as saying that public exposure of the operation has ruled out any chance of sending the Glomar Explorer back for another attempt.

Space Flight Still On

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet officials have assured the U.S. National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) that the failure of a manned Soyuz space flight last weekend will not affect the joint U.S.-Soviet mission planned for July.

A member of a NASA delegation visiting the Soviet Union in connection with the joint mission said Soviet officials told his group "categorically that the failure of the flight has no impact on their plans or their confidence" for July's ApolloSoyuz linkup.

The Russians said Saturday's Soyuz 18 flight was brought back to earth shortly after takeoff because the third-stage rocket that was to put the spaceship into orbit veered off course. The two cosmonauts returned safely to earth, the announcement said.

The NASA official said he was told a different type of booster rocket would be used in the joint mission, and it would probably undergo "more rigorous" tests.

He said he thought the Soviet explanation was "basically honest."

Markets

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market added to Tuesday's gains today with a goodsize advance, encouraged by signs of a softening in interest rates.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials, up 6.34 Tuesday, had gained another 6.65 at 755.87 by noon today. Advances held a 2-1 lead over declines on the New York Stock Exchange.

Long-term interest rates trended lower today in a continuation of the strengthening in the bond market that began Tuesday. Brokers said the recovery encouraged investors who have been worrying about a possible renewed surge in interest rates.

At the American Stock Exchange, the market-value index was up .70 at 70.95.

Trading was interrupted for 26 minutes early in the session at the NYSE because of computer problems. It was the fourth time this year — and the sixth in the last 12 months — that equipment troubles had caused a trading halt at the exchange.

The NYSE's composite index showed a .34 gain at 43.22.

Rhodes Proposes Energy Authority With Loan Powers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes proposed an Ohio Energy Development Authority today to provide industry with low-interest loans to keep workers employed and to research for new energy sources.

"Energy is the lifeblood which guarantees Ohio's industrial jobs," Rhodes said in a statement prepared for a morning news conference. "Until our energy future is secure, jobs will not be secure."

Rhodes asked the legislature to approve the agency to "assure Ohio workers continuous employment."

The authority would make low-interest loans to:

—Convert boilers now using gas to coal.

—Build oil storage facilities.

—Build coal conversion facilities.

—Open more coal mines, eliminating much need for utilities to make expensive out-of-state coal purchases.

—Build energy generating plants.

—Install energy-saving equipment.

—Fund innovative energy technology.

The agency would have revenue bonding power to make low-interest loans and energy development loans.

In addition, Rhodes has invited governors to meet with him and Vice President Rockefeller in Washington

Thursday to discuss energy problems.

The authority "will work first at alleviating current shortages. Then, in the long run, it will concentrate exclusively on energy development," he said.

The authority would also inspect energy usage around Ohio and recommend alternatives where it finds waste now as well as acting as a conduit for federal energy development funds.

Rhodes discussed the different types of energy available to Ohio:

Natural Gas—"Offers our fastest opportunity to help get people who have been laid off because of energy shortages back to work. We must help Ohio industry now using gas for nonessential purposes to switch to other fuels, such as coal."

Coal—"By expanding Ohio's coal production, we can increase supplies for industry and help eliminate the need for electric utilities to make out-of-state purchases."

Electricity—"This administration will work to prevent electric rate increases resulting from overly restrictive and unproven environmental controls."

Solar Energy—"The authority 'will be empowered to make low-interest loans for installation of solar heat in business establishments.'"

Welfare Recipients Attack Ohio Payments

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — An overflow crowd of welfare recipients and their supporters told state legislators Tuesday that welfare payments amount to less than half of the minimum subsistence level established by the state.

They demanded that Ohio double its benefits under the Aid to Dependent Children program.

Witnesses at an overflow public hearing of a House Finance Committee subcommittee said Ohio's payments are the lowest of any Great Lakes state. They said the level is too low to provide housing and food for children.

They argued that present welfare benefits total $2,508 annually for a family of four, while the subsistence level for a family that size in Ohio has been pegged at $5,184 a year.

A spokeswoman for the Ohio Coalition for Implementation of the Equal Rights Amendment testified that the present payments are sexist because they assume "that mothers — women — and their children are the only welfare recipients not deserving of a decent life."

"The proposed ADC payment level is so low that even if they remain at home with their children, women cannot provide for their children's basic needs of food, clothing and housing," said Barbara Janis.

"Yet, those few women who can find a low paying job are forced to either conceal the fact so that they can still receive the ADC payment, or to lose the payment."

"Every penny saved by this state in lowered payments (of ADC benefits) will be devoured in the treatment of child abuse, juvenile delinquency, remedial education and so on," she said.

"During the days of slavery, this nation counted each black person as only three-fifths of a human being for representation," said Kay McLandrich of Cleveland, representing Nurses Concerned for Life.

"But Ohio has done better," she said. "We count each poor person as only half of a human being. We expect them to eat only half the time."

She told the committee that the inadequate benefit level causes pregnant women to live on inadequate diets, jeopardizing the health of their unborn babies.

Woman Awarded $2.3 Million

MIAMI (AP) — A federal jury has ordered Sears, Roebuck and Co. to pay $2.3 million to a suburban Miami family because of a fatal traffic accident which followed a blowout of a Sears' tire.

The six-member panel deliberated three hours Tuesday before awarding the money to Joan Westerman, 50, of Hialeah, and her son, David.

Mrs. Westerman's husband, Max, was killed when the Sears' Allstate radial tire blew out, causing the car to skid into another vehicle on July 1, 1972, near Dallas, Tex., the suit said. Mrs. Westerman, a Hialeah teacher, was injured in the crash.

Fire Damages Apartment

Fire caused an estimated $1,000 damage to an apartment above the Time Out Pizza Restaurant, Long Street in Ashville, 1:12 a.m. Wednesday.

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputy Nick Franklin, while on routine patrol, noticed smoke coming from the roof of the building.

The Harrison Township Fire Department responded to the scene but had to force a door open in order to get to the fire. The fire was immediately doused.

Bernice Messick, 55 Walnut St., Ashville, is the owner of the apartment which was not occupied at the time of the blaze.

The fire originated along the north wall apparently started by an electrical short around the gas furnace.

Control Board Wants Data On School Aid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The State Controlling Board has asked the Department of Education to find out how local school districts are spending a $91.3 million supplemental appropriation.

The special across-the-board dole to public schools became effective without Gov. James A. Rhodes signature last Feb. 19 after heated debate in the legislature over the timing and distribution of the surplus funds.

"I think the board has a right to know where the money is going," controlling board chairman Barry Keefe told an education department representative Monday.

The renewed controversy surfaced during discussion of the state department's request for release of $22.8 million as the second installment of the supplemental payment which is being drawn from surplus budget funds.

The money is going out on the basis of $40 per pupil for local school officials to spend as they see fit, although Democratic supporters of the measure predicted most of it would end up in teachers salaries.

Rhodes had wanted all of the money earmarked for teachers, administrators and non-certified school employees.

Republican opponents of the bill, and a few Democrats, also argued that the surplus funds should be pumped into a new school foundation formula, instead of a flat distribution that might further "disqualify" state subsidies.

The House Finance Committee, which is considering an equal yield state aid plan, is not expected to approve anywhere near the $380 million estimated as necessary to fully fund the new formula.

Senior Citizens Job Plan Pushed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Senior citizens should be given jobs under the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act, Lt. Gov. Richard F. Celeste urged Tuesday.

Celeste wrote a letter to the state Manpower Development Division asking that funds from the act be allocated for senior citizen employment.

"Ohio's older citizens are willing and eager to work, but as you know, employment opportunities for those individuals over 55 are meager at best. (Your) funds can enable you to hire these people and allow you to gain highly experienced older employees who can contribute to the success of your program," he wrote.

'Free Lunch' Impossible, Says Simon

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Americans hate inflation but love the things that cause it, Treasury Secretary William E. Simon says. He also warns that the country could get itself into another inflationary spiral.

"There are strange notions in this country that there is such a thing as a free lunch and that we won't have to pay for our past sins," he said, responding to questions at the American Newspaper Publishers Association meeting here Monday.

In an earlier speech to the ANPA, Simon said the nation is recovering from recession.

"Even though the problems of unemployment and inflation are especially painful, evidence is gathering on every side that the economy is shifting gears from recession to recovery," he said.

"We are confident that the recession will bottom out during the middle months of the year, and by the end of 1975 we will definitely be on the road to recovery."

Questioned on that point, he said statistics show that the rate of inflation has been cut in half, that consumer spending is on the increase, that short term interest rates have come down and that money is flowing into home loan associations.

He said long term effects of efforts to stimulate the economy could be harmful.

"That is why it is so vitally important to avoid steps now — an even greater budget deficit, for instance, or excessive monetary policies — that might propel us out of the recession but would only catapult us into a new round of spiraling inflation and still higher unemployment," Simon said.

Solon Blasts State Lottery

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Billboards touting the state lottery with the words "Win A Million Bucks — It Sure Beats Work" so rankled a state lawmaker that he's trying to put an end to the entire operation.

"That's a deplorable approach for the State of Ohio to be taking," said Rep. John A. Galbraith, R-69 Maumee. "They've got those billboards up all over the state."

Galbraith introduced in the House a bill that would phase the lottery out of operation by Jan. 1, 1976, after all debts and obligations are paid. Whatever remains of its funds would be placed in the state's general revenue.

Galbraith voted against the lottery when the legislature put it before voters in the May, 1973, primary and again a few months later when it passed the implementing legislation. "My position basically hasn't changed," said Galbraith, a five-term House veteran. "It does one thing. It exploits human weaknesses."

He said he also is concerned that the state Lottery Commission is having to spend an increasing amount of its proceeds to keep ticket sales going.

"It requires continuous promotion," he said. "They even have it on television now."

He referred to the weekly drawings. Galbraith said further that the retailers designated as ticket sellers are doing some promoting of their own "even among the losers."

Retailers are asking losers to put their worthless tickets into a pot and then are holding a drawing for prizes "of one kind or another. Usually the prizes are new lottery tickets," he said.

Galbraith and others said they were not impressed with the lottery as a revenue producer, bearing out a warning by former Gov. John J. Gilligan at the time the lottery was enacted. Gilligan said the lottery should "never be considered seriously as a source of revenue."

Gov. James A. Rhodes' proposed budget for the 1975-1977 biennium projects declining lottery proceeds — from a gross of $67 million this fiscal year, first full year of the lottery's operation, down to $63 million next year and a further drop to $58.3 million during the 1977 fiscal year.

The combined $121.3 million total for the next biennium amounts to less than 1.5 per cent of the expected $7.25 billion general revenue fund receipts.

Dr. and Mrs. Harold Dickens and daughter Pam of Columbus were Sunday visitors to her mother, Mrs. Leslie Dearth.

Sunday afternoon callers of Mrs. Luadah Hartman were Herman Clark and Mr. and Mrs. William Gotschall of Columbus.

The American Legion Auxiliary Unit 291 of Kingston had its anniversary dinner Tuesday evening at 6:30, before the regular monthly meeting. Nine members answered roll call and guests were Paul Miller, Stephanie Karshner and Mrs. Pat Oldaker from the Chillicothe Auxiliary. They discussed the selection of a girl to go to Girl's State in June and her responsibilities.

The Kingston Auxiliary and the Kingston Civic Club will co-sponsor a representative to Girls State. She is Terry Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor.

Mrs. Oldaker also invited members of the Auxiliary to see the films of the Freedom Train on April 14.

Plans were also made for selling the poppies in May. A photographer and his aide were on hand to make final plans to take pictures at the Legion Home, Tuesday and Wednesday night this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Edler entertained at dinner Sunday, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Campbell and son Brian. The Edlers returned home last Tuesday from an over-Easter visit with their other son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Noland in Franklin, Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wiget have moved their mobile home from Fourth Street in Kingston, to the property they bought recently on Dry Run Road.

Kingston Chapter 411, Order of Easter Star held its annual inspection last Wednesday night with the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Doris Carmean conducting the meeting. The inspecting officer was Mrs. Donna Junk from Concord Chapter in Frankfort.

Honored guests were Miss Marie Hamilton, a Past Grand Matron from Circleville; Miss Joann Lemley, Grand Representative to Puerto Rico; Grand Representative to Texas, Mrs. Virginia Moats and Grand Representative to Vermont, Mrs. Sara Gale Barbee.

The secretary Miss Lemley read an announcement that Mrs. Sue Kerns had been appointed as a page to the Grand Chapter meeting that is held in Cleveland this fall.

The worthy matron's color predominated in the lovely table and floral arrangements and Mrs. Marie Cloud presided at the coffee service. Refreshments were provided by the ladies of the organization for approximately 100 members and guests.

Mrs. Mary Miller came home Saturday from a ten-day, over-Easter visit with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller at their home in Grove City.

Mrs. Doris Carmean celebrated her birthday Sunday and was the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Carmean, and her daughter, Mrs. Carol Sue Fox, at Duff's Smorgasborg in Columbus.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood have returned to their home on Woodland Avenue after nearly ten months in Homestead, Fla., where Mr. Woods was representing his company. Miss Mary Kay Wood flew to Florida and drove back with her parents.

A Page Of Opinion

Metric Conversion

Many newer auto speedometers now show speeds in kilometers as well as miles per hour. Cans of food frequently indicate the net gram weight, as well as ounces. Science has been using metric weights and measurements for years and manufacturing is doing so increasingly.

What all these examples represent is an unofficial switch to the metric system.

Unofficial because while the official government position is that conversion is inevitable, the machinery for taking the plunge has not been adopted.

Some industries and numerous other fields have found it necessary to begin the process on their own, resulting in many instances of a dual system. The necessity is brought about by increasing world trade and the need for more frequent reference points and standards with other countries.

Considering that Brunei, Burma, Liberia, Yemen and the United States are the only countries not yet committed to the metric system, the U.S. lag has created the need for a do-it-yourself conversion by industry and others. By the time Congress gives its approval to the go-ahead, the finish line could be well in sight.

Gardner's Common Cause

ON THE LINE
By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — A wise precaution you could take during the coming election year would be to join the hundreds of thousands of Americans who have become members of John Gardner's Common Cause organization. With headquarters in New York, and small in relation to the population, it has exerted a considerable influence, for the good, on the U.S. as a whole.

Gardner held appointive offices under Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, and has been mentioned among the array of nominees for a place on next year's Democratic ticket. But he is not a candidate. He and his people will, instead, do what they can to improve the breed of candidates. They have other achievements to their credit. They, more than anybody else perhaps, hit the ancient and dishonorable seniority system in the Congress harder than any other organization. It had been sacrosanct for a century and more, and had given us such beasts as Joseph McCarthy, Thomas Dodd, F. Edward Hebert and Wilbur Mills.

Common Cause's approach to the betterment of Congress, for example, would not be as rough as Ralph Nader's war on General Motors, say. Mainly, it seeks to and does shed light on the men and women we choose to represent us and the benefits they have voted themselves, without our consent, over the decades.

I, for one, never knew what a cushy thing it is to be a member of Congress until Common Cause figured it out.

A Congressman's base pay is $42,500 a year, but that's only the beginning. There is an additional $194,000 which can be used to employ a staff (often relatives) of up to 16 persons. Then, $5,500 a year to buy "equipment" for the office, plus $5,000 a year for furniture and $1,500 for carpets and drapes.

The franking privilege (free postage) is estimated to be worth $50,000 per year. It is a formidable weapon in any Congressman's arsenal to remain in office in perpetuity. With that goes $6,500 of private stationery, 480,000 envelopes worth $6,000. Free telephone and telegraphic service — up to 100,000 messages a year, which works out to about a $9,000-a-year fringe benefit for each member.

Then there are the Senate's 12 restaurants that serve low cost, tax-subsidized meals. Members of the House of Representatives stave off starvation in their enormous cut-rate cafeteria, which has five private rooms to boot, or use their extra-private dining rooms they have installed in their offices.

You take extraordinarily tender loving care of your Senators and Congressmen. Three doctors are on call for free medical care; plus a nurse, ambulance and physical therapy room. There is an underpriced pharmacy, of course. All members are given special care and attention at modest prices in any military hospital.

They've got to stay in touch with the folks back home, right? So there's a private television studio set up on Capitol Hill. Certain Congressmen have complained bitterly that they are charged for the use of it. They are. But for $2,500, they can make a year's supply of weekly 5-minute radio or TV spots to be shipped back home to prove to the constituents that they are alive, well, and working like beavers. A commercial studio would charge

Old Ships Contribute To Science

BATAVIA, Ill. (AP) — Decommissioned Navy vessels are finding an inglorious but useful home buried beneath the Illinois prairie, far from the bounding main.

Their hulls are being brought in pieces by rail and truck for use in high energy physics experiments at the Fermi National Accelerator Laboratory.

Armor plates from the hull of the Wasp, the Baltimore, the Fall River, the Macon and other cruisers and aircraft carriers from World War II and the Korean War are buried deep in the laboratory's particle research facilities.

"The swords of the Navy's battle fleet have become the plowshares of nuclear research," says the newsletter for Fermilab, which contains the world's most powerful nuclear accelerator.

Armor plates from the vessels usually measure 8 by 10 feet. They are 3½ to 6 inches thick and weigh four tons each. At Fermilab, they are used to filter out unwanted particles extracted from the atom.

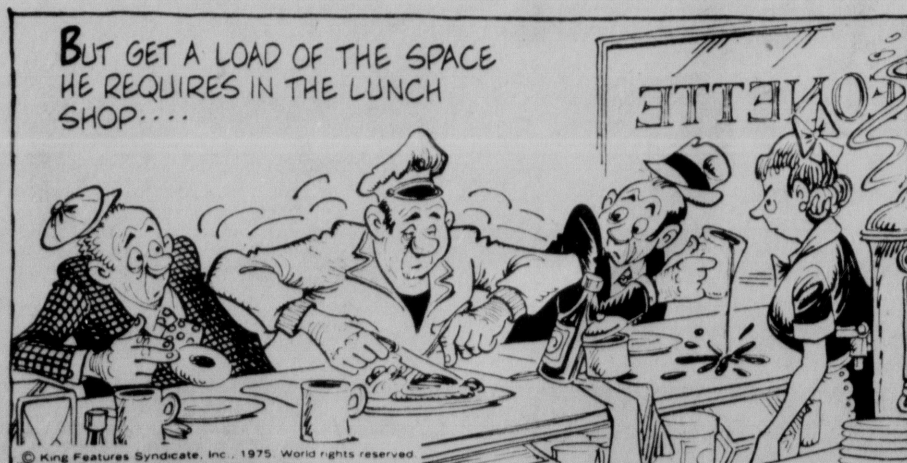

The laboratory acquires the steel, as well as lead used as ballast in decommissioned submarines, free from the Navy and pays $53 a ton to have it shipped.

So far, 3,000 tons of armor plates have been received and 2,000 more are on order. It is estimated that the laboratory might use as much as 100,000 tons if its energy is increased to 1,000 billion electron volts. At present it can operate as high as 400 billion electron volts.

The steel from 18 ships has been used so far. A cruiser yields about 200 tons of steel armor plate and an aircraft carrier about 600 tons.

California has a brand new grape — Carnelian. This grape was released by the University of California in 1973 for commercial planting. It is a red grape developed from Cabernet Sauvignon, Grenache and Carignane varieties.

They'll Do It Every Time

Then there are the junkets, particularly around this time of year. Latter-day Congressmen have discovered the People's Republic of China, the Soviet Union, and have made "study tours" of India, Indonesia, Indochina, and wherever else U.S. Air Force planes fly. There are filing cases at the State Department filled with complaints of foreign service officers and embassy personnel pertaining to the outrageous demands of some of the touring Congressmen, ranging all the way from arranging state dinners in their honor, to shopping tours, and even a liaison with a happy hooker.

Common Cause doesn't begrudge Congressmen the $42,500. But it questions the additional $300,000 or so which the taxpayers annually cough up to feed and water each of them, without the taxpayers' knowledge.

Business World

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Administration officials profess to seeing signs that the worst of the recession is coming to an end, but so far no element of economic society seems to be deriving inspiration from the vision.

Consumer confidence is said by the pollsters to be on the rise again, but you won't find convincing evidence of this in some parts of the marketplace.

Domestic automobile sales slid in March, following the ending of some rebate programs, and analysts of that industry now say that sales at bargaining prices during February came at the expense of midsummer sales.

In other words, people who already were going to buy cars moved up the date of purchase. That removes them as future sales prospects, and car dealers are now wondering what they'll have to do in order to create sales enthusiasm later this spring.

Consumers continue to pare their debt. Installment loans are being paid off and new commitments avoided. Whether the tax rebate changes this trend remains to be seen.

Business also is slow to spend. Capital spending plans are lower than they were a year ago, which suggests some corporations are going to sit back and wait for a resumption of demand before committing dollars.

The stock market surge seemed to spread confidence, for a while at least, but many analysts now have turned decidedly cautious, fearful of what they euphemistically call a correction. Sizeable profits were made on paper, and now there is a distinct feeling among some institutions that they had better nail down those profits now — before their competitors take theirs. That type of thinking doesn't support a stock market advance.

Perhaps the biggest cloud in the sky is that big federal deficit.

While all sorts of arguments have been advanced as to why the deficit won't be a disruptive force, not many people appear convinced. The fears are these:

—A credit crunch, resulting from the big demands made in the credit markets to finance the deficit.

—Higher interest rates, for the same reason.

—A resumption of inflation sometime in 1976 because of heavy federal spending.

None of these is a certainty. All are probable. Not knowing just what to expect, both consumers and business seem therefore to have more than the usual amount of doubt.

"Now even more than last year," say economists at the University of Michigan, "The most important factor for consumer confidence is the degree to which consumers become convinced that the government's policy will be successful in bringing the economy out of recession."

All eyes are on Washington. The latest Michigan consumer survey shows that "Confidence in government, declining for a decade, has recently declined at an accelerating rate."

Washington has to prove itself.

Today In History

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Today is Wednesday, April 9, the 99th day of 1975. There are 266 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

In 1865, the Civil War ended as General Robert E. Lee surrendered to General Ulysses S. Grant at Appomattox Court House, Virginia.

On this date — In 1833, the first public library in the nation to be supported by municipal taxes was founded in Peterborough, New Hampshire.

In 1939, 75,000 persons crowded around the Lincoln Memorial in Washington to hear the Negro singer, Marian Anderson, after she had been barred from Constitution Hall.

In 1940, in World War Two, Germany invaded Norway and Denmark.

In 1942, after more than three months of resistance, American and Filipino forces on Bataan in the Philippines were overwhelmed by the Japanese.

In 1963, Sir Winston Churchill was proclaimed an honorary citizen of the United States.

Ten years ago: President Lyndon Johnson took part in the official opening of the Astrodome stadium in Houston, Texas.

Five years ago: The death toll was put at 73 in a gas explosion and fire at a subway construction site in Osaka, Japan.

One year ago: President Richard Nixon inspected tornado damage in Xenia, Ohio, where 1,100 homes had been damaged and 35 persons killed.

Today's birthdays: Former Democratic Senator J.W. Fulbright of Arkansas is 70 years old. French actor Jean-Paul Belmondo is 41.

Thought for today: The man who makes no mistakes does not usually make anything — E.J. Phelps, American lawyer and diplomat, 1822-1900.

Speaking Of Your Health

by Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

The potential dangers that lurk within the safety of the home are sometimes brought into sharp focus by a single, unexpected experience.

When it occurs, it highlights the constant need for supervision so that accidents can be avoided.

A 2-year-old daughter of one of my patients investigated, with the normal curiosity of children, an open handbag of a visitor to their home.

In the purse were some pink pills that looked just like candy. They were tranquilizing drugs. Within a few seconds the child had eaten two of them and within minutes, she became increasingly drowsy. Fortunately, the mother was able to determine the reason for this sudden change in her child and rushed her to the hospital.

The speed with which this was done and the recognition of the drug that the child had consumed made it possible to treat her rapidly and effectively.

Of course, this is a relatively rare experience. Yet it does emphasize the need to keep ALL medicines in containers that will resist the prying, curious hands of children.

An additional thought must be noted. Far too often children are enticed into taking their medicines by referring to them as "candy." Candy is candy and medicine is medicine. The distinction should be clear to children as well as to adults.

For years boric acid has been used as a mild antiseptic, disinfectant and eye wash. Consequently, it was a drug commonly found around the house.

In recent years, it was found that boric acid was absorbed into an infant's skin and blood when diapers were rinsed in it.

Since this new knowledge of the toxic effect of boric acid has been established, boric acid has been discarded for infants and children.

Now it has been found that boric acid is highly effective in ridding the home of roaches. This revives a hazard that must be guarded against. Care must be taken to prevent children and pets from tasting the white powdery substance.

Obviously, it should be sprinkled in areas that they cannot reach.

Al, I'm sorry you died. Men are strange creatures. They never know how much affection they have for a guy until he's gone. Then they mix a drink and go off into a den and think. They dream. After awhile, they sigh and take the empty glass back to the kitchen and wash it.

That's what they're doing to the pal who departed. Wash him away. Me — well, you know best — I was always a sentimental cynic. A letter came in yesterday from Dorothy and it was datelined from Silver Spring, Maryland. It said you were seized with a hemorrhage and "went very quickly in my arms."

I began to think of age 17. Our bunch was pretty close in those days. You were a stocky kid with flame red hair and pale skin. You had incompatible characteristics: a great mind and an irrepressible giggle. You had a nervous habit of slashing the bottom of your nostrils as you spoke.

Age 17 is a crossroads. Your goal was to be a concert pianist, and I sat for hours listening to you miss a phrase and go back over it. Chopin was your favorite. Not just his music; his life.

Your mother was a Seventh-Day Adventist, a forgiving person. Your wisdom told you there was no God so you remained an atheist. Death, you told me, was just as dark and unremembered as growing in a womb. They were alike, you insisted, except that one was rowing toward light while the other receded toward an empty dusk.

I couldn't buy it, Al. But I loved to listen. So did your cousin Artie Taylor, the Beau Brummell of the group. A kid could slash a wrist on the crease in Artie's trousers. Artie had a soft, left-handed smile and was the only kid who could go to bed Friday night and get up Sunday noon.

Paths, sadly, do not converge after age 17. They diverge. Artie went off somewhere and married a schoolteacher. He departed some years ago to find the great perhaps. John Dundas had a great talent for the theatre. He was the actor's actor in our set, with the first pencilled mustache. The last I heard of him he was driving a truck at Fort Monmouth.

Fred Grimsey moved to Brooklyn, married an Irish girl with a brogue. She died, and he married a lovely woman who didn't know what we were talking about when we reminisced.

You were, among other things, a fantastic mathematician and got a job with New York Life Insurance Company. I wanted to write. Taylor wanted to teach. Grimsey finally got a boat works and he tinkers with engines with emphysema in the winter and paints hulls in the spring.

Who would know these things at 17?

Years later, some of us were in Battery A, 112th Field Artillery. When our hitch was up, we got out. You stayed and went to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, where the cannoners have hairy ears.

At this time, the old gang of ne'er-do-well kids wrote to each other once a year or less. In World War II, you became a major and sucked your boots through the mud of Pacific islands until you came to Tokyo. MacArthur appointed you head of an M.P. detail and you were Major Alexander L. Porter.

In 1946, they dropped you to sergeant, and you took your pension and moved to the south side of San Francisco, near Candlestick Park. You married a woman your age, went to ball games, and cursed life in cans of beer.

You read the San Francisco Examiner so, behind by back, you kept abreast of what I was doing. Once, at the Mark Hopkins, I asked you to dinner, and you showed up so loaded you walked leaning against a wall. I knew why. You had lost an eye in the war and you felt that I had made it in life and you hadn't.

It isn't true. You wanted to soldier and you soldiered. It wasn't your fault that the Army used you as a major and dumped you as a sergeant.

Reading was your favorite. But they had to be books on mathematics, mathematical puzzles or history. So you sat the years out, deep in a leather chair reading, while the record player gave you perfect versions of Chopin.

Kelly and I intended to stop by and she was willing to allow us to sit alone and ask each other, "Whatever became of . . . ?" Now the hour is late and Dorothy writes that you repose in a small urn at Arlington Park.

Everybody gets a shot at this eternal darkness you spoke about. I wish I had seen you before this thing happened because I would like to bet you 10-to-1 you're wrong. You're probably standing at attention trying to explain the exalted wisdom which possessed all of us when we were 17 . . .

A Page Of Opinion

Metric Conversion

Many newer auto speedometers now show speeds in kilometers as well as miles per hour. Cans of food frequently indicate the net gram weight, as well as ounces. Science has been using metric weights and measurements for years and manufacturing is doing so increasingly.

What all these examples represent is an unofficial switch to the metric system.

Unofficial because while the official government position is that conversion is inevitable, the machinery for taking the plunge has not been adopted.

Some industries and numerous other fields have found it necessary to begin the process on their own, resulting in many instances of a dual system. The necessity is brought about by increasing world trade and the need for more frequent reference points and standards with other countries.

Considering that Brunei, Burma, Liberia, Yemen and the United States are the only countries not yet committed to the metric system, the U.S. lag has created the need for a do-it-yourself conversion by industry and others. By the time Congress gives its approval to the go-ahead, the finish line could be well in sight.

Gardner's Common Cause

ON THE LINE
By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — A wise precaution you could take during the coming election year would be to join the hundreds of thousands of Americans who have become members of John Gardner's Common Cause organization. With headquarters in New York, and small in relation to the population, it has exerted a considerable influence, for the good, on the U.S. as a whole.

Gardner held appointive offices under Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, and has been mentioned among the array of nominees for a place on next year's Democratic ticket. But he is not a candidate. He and his people will, instead, do what they can to improve the breed of candidates. They have other achievements to their credit. They, more than anybody else perhaps, hit the ancient and dishonorable seniority system in the Congress harder than any other organization. It had been sacrosanct for a century and more, and had given us such beautes as Joseph McCarthy, Thomas Dodd, F. Edward Hebert and Wilbur Mills.

Common Cause's approach to the betterment of Congress, for example, would not be as rough as Ralph Nader's war on General Motors, say. Mainly, it seeks to and does shed light on the men and women we choose to represent us and the benefits they have voted themselves, without our consent, over the decades.

I, for one, never knew what a cushy thing it is to be a member of Congress until Common Cause figured it out.

A Congressman's base pay is $42,500 a year, but that's only the beginning. There is an additional $194,000 which can be used to employ a staff (often relatives) of up to 16 persons. Then, $5,500 a year to buy "equipment" for the office, plus $5,000 a year for furniture and $1,500 for carpets and drapes.

The franking privilege (free postage) is estimated to be worth $50,000 per year. It is a formidable weapon in any Congressman's arsenal to remain in office in perpetuity. With that goes $6,500 of private stationery, 480,000 envelopes worth $6,000. Free telephone and telegraphic service — up to 100,000 messages a year, which works out to about a $9,000-a-year fringe benefit for each member.

Then there are the Senate's 12 restaurants that serve low cost, tax-subsidized meals. Members of the House of Representatives stave off starvation in their enormous cut-rate cafeteria, which has five private rooms to boot, or use their extra-private dining rooms they have installed in their offices.

You take extraordinarily tender loving care of your Senators and Congressmen. Three doctors are on call for free medical care; plus a nurse, ambulance and physical therapy room. There is an underpriced pharmacy, of course. All members are given special care and attention at modest prices in any military hospital.

They've got to stay in touch with the folks back home, right? So there's a private television studio set up on Capitol Hill. Certain Congressmen have complained bitterly that they are charged for the use of it. They are. But for $2,500, they can make a year's supply of weekly 5-minute radio or TV spots to be shipped back home to prove to the constituents that they are alive, well, and working like beavers. A commercial studio would charge

Old Ships Contribute To Science

BATAVIA, Ill. (AP) — Decommissioned Navy vessels are finding an inglorious but useful home buried beneath the Illinois prairie, far from the bounding main.

Their hulls are being brought in pieces by rail and truck for use in high energy physics experiments at the Fermi National Accelerator Laboratory.

Weakened Spring Storm Heads East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Wind-blown snow spread from Montana to Minnesota today and showers and thunderstorms ranged from Nebraska to Kentucky as the latest in a series of spring storms weakened and plodded eastward.

Blizzard conditions ended in Montana, and all warnings involving the storm were dropped to advisories. Travelers or stockmen were alerted to possibly hazardous conditions in parts of Montana, the Dakotas and Minnesota.

The storm built the snowcover at Great Falls, Mont., to 24 inches, the deepest ever measured there. Some of the snow came from a previous storm, however. Dickinson, N.D., had 21 inches on the ground.

The North Dakota Highway Department was advising against travel in western and central sections of the state late Tuesday because of slippery conditions and roads blocked with snow. Some roads that had been plowed open quickly drifted shut with wind gusts up to 50 miles per hour.

Spokesmen for cattlemen in North Dakota said the loss of newborn calves in the spring storms is expected to be the largest in state history. The toll a week ago, before the latest storm, was estimated at 10,000.

Sleet, fog and freezing drizzle plagued motorists in eastern South Dakota. Snow was mixed with rain into northeastern Iowa.

A storm system in the Southwest scattered rain over Southern California and dumped snow on mountain areas east into Arizona. Three inches of snow sifted into Flagstaff, Ariz., Tuesday.

Thunderstorms roaming the South drenched parts of Texas with heavy rains Tuesday. Large hail accompanied a storm at Pensacola, Fla. Rainfall in the midcontinent storms generally was not heavy.

Dense fog and drizzle dampened much of the coastal region of Texas and Louisiana.

Temperatures before dawn ranged from 10 at Butte, Mont., to 78 at Key West, Fla.

NEW YORK (AP) — At the same time NBC began its coverage of the Oscar awards show Tuesday night, CBS started a news special on U.S. involvement in Vietnam and Cambodia and what has resulted from it.

It was unsettling to watch both programs side by side. On one screen Hollywood hoopla, glitter and laughter. On the other screen, war, refugees, sadness, sober analysis and what went wrong.

Two programs, each crisply produced, one for enjoyment, for briefly forgetting bad times, the other for thinking and remembering. We made a hastily jotted diary of a few contrasts in one hour:

—On CBS, Charles Collingwood notes that developments in Southeast Asia last week came "almost too rapidly for comprehension." On NBC, a brief lecture on the history of the Oscar and famous winners.

—CBS correspondent Bruce Dunning, in his dramatic film report of the last jetliner out of panic-stricken Da Nang, notes that people are clustered around it and "I don't know how the hell we're going to get off." On NBC, videotape and kinescope replays of past Oscar shows.

On CBS, Bob Simon reporting on refugees at Vung Tau, a shipload of 20,000 of them at one point. On NBC, Bob Hope doing a monologue on nominated movies amid much laughter.

—On CBS, an image of a crying Vietnamese man who, the reporter says, is a refugee who hasn't seen his family in 10 days. On NBC, Hope is saying Oscar nominees who didn't win "will gather in the Remorse Room of the Ramada Inn for a Binoca blast."

—On CBS, old film clips of the French fighting the Viet Minh and then American troops engaged in the war a decade later. On NBC, the nominees for the best animated short film.

—On CBS, a look at Cambodia in the days of Prince Norodom Sihanouk and what happened after his ouster and the U.S. military incursion there in 1970. On NBC, the first and only Vietnam reminder in an hour — an Oscar for "Hearts and Minds," a controversial Vietnam war documentary.

—On CBS, a study of the defense of embattled Tay Ninh. On NBC, an Oscar for the sound effects in "Earthquake."

—On CBS, political developments in Saigon, including the move for President Nguyen Van Thieu's resignation. On NBC, Gene Kelly doing a brief "Singing in the Rain" number.

—On CBS, the Vietnamese "babylift," the tragic crash of an Air Force C-5A filled with infants and an analysis of what U.S. disengagement from Vietnam may mean to America's other allies. On NBC, vocalists singing movie tunes nominated for the "best song" award.

The juxtapositions are unfair, of course. But they still made for a disturbing hour's look at two worlds, one happily make-believe and the other sad and very real.

Shocknessy Renamed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes announced the reappointment of Turnpike chairman James W. Shocknessy at an emotional meeting of the commission Tuesday during which Shocknessy revealed that he had undergone surgery for cancer.

"I'm making no secret," Shocknessy said. "I think it better for people to know that cancer is not a dirty word."

Shocknessy, 68, has served as chairman of the turnpike commission since its inception more than 26 years ago.

Although his term does not expire until June 30, Rhodes told him, "We'll announce your reappointment today. You've fully recovered."

"I've spent many years working in agencies dedicated to the eradication and amelioration of cancer," Shocknessy said during extraordinarily candid remarks concerning his condition, "I never thought it would be me."

He said he had experienced a "remarkable recovery" from the March 11 operation.

Weakened Spring Storm Heads East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Wind-blown snow spread from Montana to Minnesota today and showers and thunderstorms ranged from Nebraska to Kentucky as the latest in a series of spring storms weakened and plodded eastward. Blizzard conditions ended in Montana, and all warnings involving the storm were dropped to advisories. Travelers or stockmen were alerted to possibly hazardous conditions in parts of Montana, the Dakotas and Minnesota.

The storm built the snowcover at Great Falls, Mont., to 24 inches, the deepest ever measured there. Some of the snow came from a previous storm, however. Dickinson, N.D., had 21 inches on the ground.

The North Dakota Highway Department was advising against travel in western and central sections of the state late Tuesday because of slippery conditions and roads blocked with snow. Some roads that had been plowed open quickly drifted shut with wind gusts up to 50 miles per hour.

Spokesmen for cattlemen in North Dakota said the loss of newborn calves in the spring storms is expected to be the largest in state history. The toll a week ago, before the latest storm, was estimated at 10,000.

Sleet, fog and freezing drizzle plagued motorists in eastern South Dakota. Snow was mixed with rain into northeastern Iowa.

Barbara Adams Becomes Mrs. Robert Dollison In Double Ring Ceremony

Two vases of yellow and white daisies decorated the altar at the People's Faith Chapel March 15 as the Rev. John DeMint united Miss Barbara Elizabeth Adams and Robert Wayne Dollison in marriage.

Lorraine Benner and Fred Warner provided the music for the double ring ceremony performed for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Adams, Route 4, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dollison, Route 1.

The new Mrs. Dollison, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white polyester crepe with lace bodice, long fitted sleeves, and a chapel train. The V-necked gown had white polyester lace. The veil, three layers of sheer illusion, was held with a three-tiered crown of pearls.

The bride wore pearl earrings and a silver cross necklace and carried a bouquet of white and yellow daisies with peach roses.

Jackie Sue Shelby, a niece of the bride, served as maid of honor. Carrying white and yellow daisies, she wore a long peach polyester dress with coordinated jacket.

Harold Adams, brother of the bride, served Mr. Dollison as best man. Ushers were David Shelby, a nephew of the bride, and Mark Dollison, the groom's brother.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Adams chose a polyester dress of white with black print flowers. She wore pearl earrings and yellow daisies.

Mrs. Dollison, mother of the groom, wore a polyester dress of peach and yellow daisies.

June Roark and Sue Shuttleworth, sisters of the bride, served as hostesses at the reception which followed at the L-K Restaurant. Two vases of yellow and white daisies were used as the centerpiece and mint green candles were on each table.

For the wedding trip to Orlando, Fla., the new Mrs. Dollison wore a peach and white pant suit. The couple plans to live at Route 4, Circleville.

The bride is a 1974 graduate of Zane Trace High School.

Mr. Dollison, a 1971 graduate of Logan Elm High School, is employed by Kenny's Mobile Homes, Chillicothe.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. David Adams of Ft. Knox, Ky., and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Shuttleworth of Lancaster.

Color With Annuals Is Topic Of Circleville Club Program

The Circleville Garden Club met Friday at the Pickaway Arms with Mrs. Hazel Neff and Miss Wilmine Haecker as hostesses. A dessert course was served preceding the business meeting and program.

Dr. W. L. Sprouse, president of the club, announced that progress was being made for the club project of beautifying one of the buildings at the Pickaway County Fairgrounds.

Hartford Renick reported on the African Violet Show that was held recently in Columbus in which he entered 18 plants and received 18 ribbons. They included 14 blue, three red, and one white.

He also received four awards for the Best in Class, three special awards, and one for the largest African Violet in the show.

The program for the evening was on the color in the garden and emphasized the use of annuals. By their nature, annuals are ideal for creating strong designs in flower borders in any situation. Catalogue descriptions are not equal to seeing the annual varieties in bloom, according to the program.

Trinity Women To Host ALCW

Women of Trinity Lutheran Church will host the Tri State Conference Convention of the American Lutheran Church Women Thursday beginning at 9:45 a.m. Coffee hour is scheduled from 9 to 9:30 a.m.

The convention theme is "Hope, Rejoice, Share." Speakers will be the Reverend Dorothy Meadows of Columbus and Dr. James Berquist of Capital University. Mrs. Harold Anderson, Tri-State conference president from Circleville, will preside. An election of officers will be held.

Calvary United Methodist Church women will serve lunch at noon. A children's nursery is to be staffed by girls from the Ross-Pickaway Joint Vocational School. Mrs. Herman Will has served as reservations chairman.

Mrs. Ronald List is general chairman for the convention. Delegates from Trinity are: Mrs. William Weller, Mrs. Charles Walters and Mrs. Sidney Sanders, alternate.

Remember Mother With a Jewelry Gift She'll Remember Always

There's only one gift as eternal and shining as her love for you and your love for her — jewelry.

This Mother's Day, select "something special" for her from our exciting array of watches, bracelets, pins, pendants, rings, charms, earrings and silver. She'll know how much you mean it.

In an effort to keep society news current, The Herald has established the following policy concerning wedding news:

Wedding forms may be obtained at The Herald from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and until noon on Saturday.

It would be helpful to have the wedding form completed and returned with a picture three days before the wedding.

The Herald will make every effort to publish the story and picture on the next day of publication following the wedding providing the forms and picture are returned before the wedding.

No bridal pictures and stories will be accepted if submitted later than 30 days following the ceremony.

FROZEN FOOD CARE

Consumers today are buying and cooking more foods specifically for their freezers. Buying frozen foods on special or buying fresh produce and meat on special and storing it in the freezer is economical. Cooking meals and freezing them is convenient for quick dinners.

To maintain the best quality in frozen foods, remember that the lower the temperature, the longer food can be stored in top quality condition. A time-temperature study conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture found that frozen foods stored at zero degrees fahrenheit or lower maintained their prime condition for a longer period of time than foods stored at a higher temperature.

It's a good idea to check the temperature of your freezer or refrigerator "frozen foods compartment" with a refrigerator-freezer thermometer occasionally. A separate household freezer should maintain a reading of zero degrees and keep a variety of frozen foods for up to one year. In the frozen foods compartment of a conventional one-door refrigerator, the thermostat may read +10 or +15 degrees fahrenheit. Frozen foods placed here will maintain quality several weeks. The temperature of a well-insulated freezer compartment of a two-door combination refrigerator-freezer should register between zero and +8 degrees fahrenheit. At +8 degrees fahrenheit, food will maintain its quality several months.

A little extra care will insure that frozen foods are kept in the best condition. Bring frozen food purchases home from the supermarket quickly and store immediately. Rotate frozen foods by following the "first in, first out" method of use as much as possible.

All foods, canned, dry or frozen should be used within a reasonable length of time.

FROZEN FOOD CARE

Consumers today are buying and cooking more foods specifically for their freezers. Buying frozen foods on special or buying fresh produce and meat on special and storing it in the freezer is economical. Cooking meals and freezing them is convenient for quick dinners.

To maintain the best quality in frozen foods, remember that the lower the temperature, the longer food can be stored in top quality condition. A time-temperature study conducted by the United States Department of Agriculture found that frozen foods stored at zero degrees fahrenheit or lower maintained their prime condition for a longer period of time than foods stored at a higher temperature.

It's a good idea to check the temperature of your freezer or refrigerator "frozen foods compartment" with a refrigerator-freezer thermometer occasionally. A separate household freezer should maintain a reading of zero degrees and keep a variety of frozen foods for up to one year. In the frozen foods compartment of a conventional one-door refrigerator, the thermostat may read +10 or +15 degrees fahrenheit. Frozen foods placed here will maintain quality several weeks. The temperature of a well-insulated freezer compartment of a two-door combination refrigerator-freezer should register between zero and +8 degrees fahrenheit. At +8 degrees fahrenheit, food will maintain its quality several months.

A little extra care will insure that frozen foods are kept in the best condition. Bring frozen food purchases home from the supermarket quickly and store immediately. Rotate frozen foods by following the "first in, first out" method of use as much as possible.

All foods, canned, dry or frozen should be used within a reasonable length of time.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Smokers' Last Gasp

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have only one child, a son, now married and living in California. ( We live in New York.)

My elderly mother is very ill, and her days are numbered. She has always relied heavily on me, and being a very dutiful daughter, I gave her lots of time and attention. Because of this, my son has never been too fond of his grandmother. However, my son, husband and I are very close.

While talking to my son (long distance), I said, "Keep your woolen suit pressed because you will need it when you come east for your grandmother's funeral." His reply: "I hadn't planned on coming."

When I told my husband this, he said, "If he doesn't want to come, don't hassle him."

Abby, don't you think that out of respect for my feelings, my son should come for his grandmother's funeral? I offered to pay his plane fare both ways. If I had brothers and sisters, the situation would be different, but my husband and my son and his family are all I have.

I don't mean to be a demanding mother, but in a time of sorrow I feel it would be comforting to have those dear to me near. Would I be unreasonable to insist that he come?

MOTHER DEAR ABBY: If your son, knowing how much you want him near you in your sorrow, chooses not to come, shame on him. But if you, knowing that he doesn't really want to come, insist that he does—then shame on you!

DEAR ABBY: Some time ago, I wrote asking if you knew of a travel club for nonsmokers. You replied that you did, but suggested I contact the American Cancer Society. They did not know of any either.

Now there is one! The Nonsmokers' Travel Club, which I was instrumental in forming. We are an off-shoot of GASP (Group Against Smokers' Pollution), and now have 71 members from all over the U.S.A.

We have two domestic bus trips, and three foreign trips planned for 1975. Our buses will have nonsmoking drivers and nonsmoking tour guides. Our foreign trips will travel in the nonsmoking section of scheduled airliners. Once at our destination, we will travel in our own bus with a nonsmoking driver and guide.

If you think this will be of interest to your readers, please mention it in your widely read column.

MILDRED A. POST, CHAIR-PERSON

DEAR MILDRED: It's mentioned. Those interested in traveling without the annoyance of tobacco smoke may write to me (and please include a stamped, addressed envelope) for the address of the smoke-free travel club.

DEAR ABBY: Some additional information on how one can improve his credit rating: Under federal law, anyone is permitted to inspect his (or her) credit file and offer corrections and inaccuracies. Erroneous information can result in poor credit rating.

If one is refused a loan or a charge account, he has the right to know the name and address of the consumer reporting agency or credit company that supplied the adverse information.

This law applies to investigation reports causing denial of a job and is contained in Title 15, U.S. Code, section 1681.

DENNIS B. KAVANAUGH, ATTORNEY AT LAW

DEAR MR. K. : Thanks for the addition.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box no. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

WAGONS WEST—Horse-drawn wagons are strung out along a highway near Kleinburg, Ont., 30 miles north of Toronto, as the Canadian Wagon Train started a 3,000 mile trek to Alberta.

State Lottery's Finances 'Remiss'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)— State Auditor Thomas E. Ferguson's office delivered a sort of slap on the wrist Monday to the state Lottery Commission, saying it had been "remiss" in the way it kept records.

The criticism came in an examiner's report concluded more than six months ago, and Ferguson's office acknowledged that some of the irregularities have since been corrected.

In a report that covered the period from July 1, 1974, through Sept. 30, 1974, the auditor's office said:

—Minutes of meetings were improperly maintained, and the signature of the chairman on the minutes was not witnessed by the signature of the executive director.

—The commission had not established a "cash control ledger" to reflect the commission's status of funds on a daily basis.

—The commission had not, at the time, began mandatory monthly payments of 30 per cent of its proceeds to the state's general fund. (Monthly payments now are being made on a monthly basis, the office confirmed).

—Of the commission's 192 employees, 69 had been paid overtime for work in excess of 37½ hours a week, compared to 40 hours for other state employees.

—Some vendors of lottery tickets had their licenses delivered to them before they paid their $10 fee "in order to get the lottery started on time."

—As of the audit, the commission still had not repaid the general fund for a $2 million advance it received to get the operation started. (It since has been repaid).

In the summary of the report by three examiners, it was maintained that the commission had been "remiss in several very important areas." None, however, suggested a need for immediate legal action.

Robert Olsen Top Brown Aid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Robert H. Olsen Jr., chief counsel to the attorney general, was appointed Tuesday as first assistant attorney general.

Olsen replaces James A. Laurensen who resigned effective April 18.

Olsen, 30, has been chief counsel since January. Earlier, he was chief of the consumer frauds section and supervised the civil rights activities of the office.

Stoutsville News

By MRS. A. B. WYNKOOP — 474-5922

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Conrad were Friday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Conrad.

St. John United Methodist Women met at the parsonage for their April meeting with Mrs. Roy Rose as hostess. The opening featured a vocal solo by Janet Ratliff and devotions by Agnes Marshall.

Topic for study was "The American Indian." The guest speaker was Mrs. Geneva Ullman who told of her experience when she visited the mission school at Phoenix, Ariz. She also displayed many items made by the Indians.

During the business session, the secretary and treasurer gave their reports and plans were made to attend a retreat at the Lancaster campground on April 12.

Janice Smith was welcomed as a new member.

Refreshments were served to ten members and the guest, Mrs. Ullman.

Mrs. Ora Marshall, Bobby and Sandy, Mrs. Alice Biggs and Besse Rife shopped at Heck's Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Heeter and sons of Columbus visited Mrs. A. B. Wynkoop on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Conrad visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Conrad Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Noble of Circleville were Friday supper guests of Mrs. Besse Rife.

Mrs. Roy Harden and Mrs. Harry Metzger attended the wedding of Robert Floyd and Miss Linda Sue Drummond on Saturday at 7:30 at the Williamsport United Methodist Church.

The Heidelberg Class of the Heidelberg United Church of Christ met at the home of Mrs. Harry Metzger Tuesday afternoon. Devotions were given by Miss Elsie Adams.

Readings were done by Mrs. Metzger, "One Solitary Life" and Miss Adams, "God Is Everywhere." An original poem, "Spring on the Farm" was read by Mrs. Roy Rife.

The business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Ralph Adams. The meeting was closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McCain of Columbus and Mrs. Leona Rife were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Conrad.

Cincinnati Man On Miami Board

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John C. Jurgensen, 42, of Cincinnati was appointed Tuesday to the board of Miami University, the governor's office announced.

Jurgensen, a contractor and director of the Ohio Contractors Association, succeeds J. Paul McNamara, whose term expired Feb. 28.

Nursing Home Testimony Heard

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A small sampling of Ohio nursing homes showed that some continued to receive Medicaid payments after a patient left the home or died—in one case for as long as a year.

State Auditor Thomas E. Ferguson cited some examples Monday night to the Senates Health and Retirement Committee. The committee is considering a resolution that would have a joint legislative committee look into operations of the state's more than 1,000 nursing homes.

Recovery Findings Issued

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state auditor is seeking $6,539.35 from four officials of the Village of Metamora in Fulton County resulting from alleged conflicts of interest.

The auditor said he made the findings for recovery following an examination of books from June 9, 1972 to May 31, 1974.

The findings represent business conducted between the companies of which the officials were principals and the municipality. The auditor said they were against:

—Maynard Stutzman, village councilman and part owner of Stutzman Ford Sales, in the amount of $5,328.96.

—Mayor Leland Snyder, owner of Metamora Hardware, in the amount of $675.86.

—George Flack, village councilman, owner of George Flack (insurance company), in the amount of $304.

—Claude Woodring, village councilman, part owner of Woodring Chevrolet, in the amount of $230.53.

In making the findings, the auditor cited a section of Ohio law which said: "No member of a legislative authority or of any board and no officer or commissioner of a municipal corporation shall have any interest other than his fixed compensation, in expenditure of money on the part of such municipal corporation."

Mines Closed In Coal Dispute

BELLAIRE, Ohio (AP) — A dispute over a safety clause has left some 7,000 miners off the job in Ohio and West Virginia.

More mines were closed Tuesday when bands of pickets roved the area as the walkout entered its fifth week.

The dispute, which was almost settled once with North American Coal Co., centers around the use of one worker in the mines to act as a safety checker while another miner uses a drill.

More than 16 mines, including other companies, in Ohio and West Virginia were closed by the walkout and roving pickets, said Art Nelms of United Mine Workers District 6 headquarters.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Smokers' Last Gasp

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have only one child, a son, now married and living in California. (We live in New York.)

My elderly mother is very ill, and her days are numbered. She has always relied heavily on me, and being a very dutiful daughter, I gave her lots of time and attention. Because of this, my son has never been too fond of his grandmother. However, my son, husband and I are very close.

While talking to my son (long distance), I said, "Keep your woolen suit pressed because you will need it when you come east for your grandmother's funeral." His reply: "I hadn't planned on coming."

When I told my husband this, he said, "If he doesn't want to come, don't hassle him."

Abby, don't you think that out of respect for my feelings, my son should come for his grandmother's funeral? I offered to pay his plane fare both ways. If I had brothers and sisters, the situation would be different, but my husband and my son and his family are all I have.

I don't mean to be a demanding mother, but in a time of sorrow I feel it would be comforting to have those dear to me near. Would I be unreasonable to insist that he come?

MOTHER DEAR MOTHER: If your son, knowing how much you want him near you in your sorrow, chooses not to come, shame on him. But if you, knowing that he doesn't really want to come, insist that he does—then shame on you!

DEAR ABBY: Some time ago, I wrote asking if you knew of a travel club for nonsmokers. You replied that you did, but suggested I contact the American Cancer Society. They did not know of any either.

Now there is one! The Nonsmokers' Travel Club, which I was instrumental in forming. We are an off-shoot of GASP (Group Against Smokers' Pollution), and now have 71 members from all over the U.S.A.

We have two domestic bus trips, and three foreign trips planned for 1975. Our buses will have nonsmoking drivers and nonsmoking tour guides. Our foreign trips will travel in the nonsmoking section of scheduled airliners. Once at our destination, we will travel in our own bus with a nonsmoking driver and guide.

If you think this will be of interest to your readers, please mention it in your widely read column.

MILDRED A. POST, CHAIR-PERSON

DEAR MILDRED: It's mentioned. Those interested in traveling without the annoyance of tobacco smoke may write to me (and please include a stamped, addressed envelope) for the address of the smoke-free travel club.

DEAR ABBY: Some additional information on how one can improve his credit rating: Under federal law, anyone is permitted to inspect his (or her) credit file and offer corrections and inaccuracies. Erroneous information can result in poor credit rating.

If one is refused a loan or a charge account, he has the right to know the name and address of the consumer reporting agency or credit company that supplied the adverse information.

This law applies to investigation reports causing denial of a job and is contained in Title 15, U.S. Code, section 1681.

DENNIS B. KAVANAUGH, ATTORNEY AT LAW

DEAR MR. K.: Thanks for the addition.

Everyone has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box no. 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope, please.

State Lottery's Finances 'Remiss'

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Auditor Thomas E. Ferguson's office delivered a sort of slap on the wrist Monday to the state Lottery Commission, saying it had been "remiss" in the way it kept records.

The criticism came in an examiner's report concluded more than six months ago, and Ferguson's office acknowledged that some of the irregularities have since been corrected.

In a report that covered the period from July 1, 1974, through Sept. 30, 1974, the auditor's office said:

—Minutes of meetings were improperly maintained, and the signature of the chairman on the minutes was not witnessed by the signature of the executive director.

—The commission had not established a "cash control ledger" to reflect the commission's status of funds on a daily basis.

—The commission had not, at the time, began mandatory monthly payments of 30 per cent of its proceeds to the state's general fund. (Monthly payments now are being made on a monthly basis, the office confirmed.)

—Of the commission's 192 employees, 69 had been paid overtime for work in excess of 37½ hours a week, compared to 40 hours for other state employees.

—Some vendors of lottery tickets had their licenses delivered to them before they paid their $10 fee "in order to get the lottery started on time."

—As of the audit, the commission still had not repaid the general fund for a $2 million advance it received to get the operation started. (It since has been repaid.)

In the summary of the report by three examiners, it was maintained that the commission had been "remiss in several very important areas." None, however, suggested a need for immediate legal action.

Robert Olsen Top Brown Aid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Robert H. Olsen Jr., chief counsel to the attorney general, was appointed Tuesday as first assistant attorney general.

Olsen replaces James A. Laursen who resigned effective April 18.

Olsen, 30, has been chief counsel since January. Earlier, he was chief of the consumer frauds section and supervised the civil rights activities of the office.

Stoutsville News

By MRS. A. B. WYNKOOP — 474-5922

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Conrad were Friday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Conrad.

St. John United Methodist Women met at the parsonage for their April meeting with Mrs. Roy Rose as hostess. The opening featured a vocal solo by Janet Ratliff and devotions by Agnes Marshall.

Topic for study was "The American Indian." The guest speaker was Mrs. Geneva Ullman who told of her experience when she visited the mission school at Phoenix, Ariz. She also displayed many items made by the Indians.

During the business session, the secretary and treasurer gave their reports and plans were made to attend a retreat at the Lancaster campground on April 12.

Janice Smith was welcomed as a new member.

Refreshments were served to ten members and the guest, Mrs. Ullman.

Mrs. Ora Marshall, Bobby and Sandy, Mrs. Alice Biggs and Besse Rife shopped at Heck's Sunday afternoon.

Nursing Home Testimony Heard

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A small sampling of Ohio nursing homes showed that some continued to receive Medicaid payments after a patient left the home or died—in one case for as long as a year.

State Auditor Thomas E. Ferguson cited some examples Monday night to the Senates Health and Retirement Committee. The committee is considering a resolution that would have a joint legislative committee look into operations of the state's more than 1,000 nursing homes.

Recovery Findings Issued

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state auditor is seeking $6,539.35 from four officials of the Village of Metamora in Fulton County resulting from alleged conflicts of interest.

The auditor said he made the findings for recovery following an examination of books from June 9, 1972 to May 31, 1974.

The findings represent business conducted between the companies of which the officials were principals and the municipality. The auditor said they were against:

—Maynard Stutzman, village councilman and part owner of Stutzman Ford Sales, in the amount of $5,328.96.

—Mayor Leland Snyder, owner of Metamora Hardware, in the amount of $675.86.

—George Flack, village councilman, owner of George Flack (insurance company), in the amount of $304.

—Claude Woodring, village councilman, part owner of Woodring Chevrolet, in the amount of $230.53.

In making the findings, the auditor cited a section of Ohio law which said: "No member of a legislative authority or of any board and no officer or commissioner of a municipal corporation shall have any interest other than his fixed compensation, in expenditure of money on the part of such municipal corporation."

Mines Closed In Coal Dispute

BELLAIRE, Ohio (AP)—A dispute over a safety clause has left some 7,000 miners off the job in Ohio and West Virginia.

More mines were closed Tuesday when bands of pickets roved the area as the walkout entered its fifth week.

The dispute, which was almost settled once with North American Coal Co., centers around the use of one worker in the mines to act as a safety checker while another miner uses a drill.

More than 16 mines, including other companies, in Ohio and West Virginia were closed by the walkout and roving pickets, said Art Nelms of United Mine Workers District 6 headquarters.

Ferguson, who submitted a written statement to the panel instead of coming before it personally, cited several examples of irregularities among 29 homes the office has surveyed in the past two years.

Such a small sampling, he said, "does not lead us to any critical posture regarding the industry." But he said, "they do indicate the Medicaid program should be examined."

Among the examples was a $10,000 payment disallowed by the auditor's office for salaries at one of the federally-subsidized homes after the home sought to put the funds "back into the business."

Ferguson said there is a "lack of communications" between the homes and county welfare departments as well as with the state Welfare Department. The disallowed $10,000 payment, he said, had been approved after a "desk review" in the state agency.

He said examiners found one case where a home failed to notify the state Welfare Department that a patient was no longer there "and it received payments up to a year after the patient had left."

The auditor said his office has embarked on a project to establish procedures for Medicaid surveillance, but that it will take "a considerable amount of time."

Among other things, he said he wants accountability for $25 monthly personal allowances provided for patients. He said there is no way of determining what happens to a patient's personal allowance fund if he dies or leaves a nursing home.

In another instance, a nursing home was being paid at a skilled care rate for one patient who acted as a chauffeur for the home's administrator. Some trips made by the administrator were to points outside Ohio, Ferguson said.

In other business, the Senate panel, headed by Sen. Anthony O. Calabrese, D-22 Cleveland, heard testimony but didn't act on a bill requiring establishments which provide pay toilet facilities to also provide at least one free accommodation.

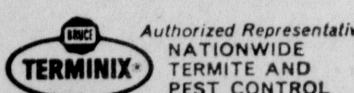

Also deferred by the committee was a measure by Sen. Harry Mesel, D-33 Youngstown, under which school teachers could claim up to five years' service credit for time employed in non-public schools and colleges.

Ruppert Undergoes Psychiatric Tests

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP) — James Ruppert, 40, today began 30 days of psychiatric tests after pleading innocent by reason of insanity to 11 indictments charging aggravated murder.

The diminutive Ruppert replied "Yes, sir," softly at his arraignment Tuesday when asked by Butler County Common Pleas Court Judge Fred B. Cramer whether he understood the charges.

Hands clasped behind him, Ruppert evidenced no sign of emotion during the reading of the indictments concerning the Easter Sunday slayings of his mother, brother, brother's wife and eight children.

Cramer remanded Ruppert to the Butler County Forensic Center for psychiatric evaluation after Ruppert's attorneys pleaded innocent and innocent by reason of insanity for their client.

Cramer also ordered Ruppert held without bond because the charges were capital offenses.

After the hearing, Ruppert's attorneys declined to speculate whether a change of venue would be sought because of the national notoriety surrounding the mass slayings.

The lawyers did, however, express regret that Ruppert was not granted a preliminary hearing. The prosecution sought direct indictments from a grand jury.

Ruppert has made no public statements since police arrived at the home of his mother, Mrs. Charity Ruppert, 65. Ruppert had telephoned them, according to Police Chief George McNally.

The other victims included Ruppert's brother, Leonard II, 42, and sister-in-law, Alma, 38, and their eight children ages 4-17.

Police confiscated three guns, more than 30 spent cartridges and numerous other items taken from the murder scene.

No trial date was immediately set. No motive was revealed.

Urge Rebates To Students

KENT, Ohio (AP) — Colleges should do like auto makers and offer cash rebates to boost plummeting enrollments, a student editor of the Daily Kent Stater suggests.

Keith Sinzinger said his idea is a tongue-in-cheek response to a Cleveland business professor's statement that colleges should not be ashamed to "sell themselves" to prospective students.

Sinzinger, assistant news editor on the Kent State University paper, said the rebates could be funded from public relations money the university pours into conventional advertising avenues.

According to Sinzinger, the university spent $500 during the last school term for ads in the New York Times.

Sinzinger called the money "wasted." He feels that any high schooler who reads the New York Times regularly probably wouldn't enroll at Kent State.

Partly cloudy skies were forecast for Ohio today with highs in the 40s north and the 50s south, except for readings in the upper 30s along the shore of Lake Erie. Low temperatures tonight will range from the 20s north to the 30s south and highs on Thursday are forecast in the 40s north to the 50s south under mostly cloudy skies. There is a chance of rain in southern Ohio on Thursday as a low pressure system moves south.

High temperatures Tuesday ranged from 37 at the Cleveland Lakefront Airport to the mid 50s along the Ohio River.

Early this morning, temperatures were mostly in the 20s. Cincinnati reported readings in the 30s, the only city to report above freezing temperatures.

Jackson Family Fun Night Set For Friday

The Jackson School Parent Teacher Boosters have scheduled a family fun night beginning 5 p.m. Friday at the school.

The evening includes a jitney supper beginning at 5 p.m. and the games beginning at 6:30.

The menu will offer sloppy joes, chicken sandwiches, hot dogs, pizza, chips, tea, coffee, orange drink, homemade pies, popcorn and cotton candy.

Games are: lollipop tree, duck pond, teddy bear toss, clown toss, basketball throw, cork gun, rifle patch, beauty shop, fish bowl, pitch till win, cane toss, milk cans, dart balloons, bingo and a white elephant sale.

Advance tickets are on sale at Jackson school.

Skitch Henderson Opens Jail Term

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — Band leader Lyle C. "Skitch" Henderson has surrendered at a federal prison camp to begin a six-month term for filing false income tax returns.

Henderson, 57, will serve the term at the minimum security Allenwood federal penitentiary in central Pennsylvania.

Henderson, whose band played for several years on NBC-TV's "Tonight" show, was convicted in December of putting an inflated $350,000 income tax value on a collection of musical scores and arrangements donated to the University of Wisconsin.

The scores were "almost worthless," said the federal judge who sentenced Henderson to the prison term and fined him $10,000.

Henderson surrendered on Tuesday.

Wheat Crop Data Coming Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — A month from now, the Agriculture Department will have a pretty good idea of how much wheat farmers will produce this year and what the demands for domestic use and export appear to be through the 1975-76 season.

The Crop Reporting Board will announce new estimates of 1975 winter wheat production on May 9, including how many acres farmers are expected to harvest and their estimated yields per acre.

Since winter wheat normally comprises about three-fourths of the total U.S. production, the May 9 figures will give a reasonable idea on whether farmers will produce a record wheat crop as USDA officials have predicted.

Estimates of 1975 spring wheat production will not be ready until July 10, at which time the department will have a more definite grasp of total wheat output this year.

The big spring-planted crops of corn and soybeans will not be estimated on the basis of field surveys and yields until August, but acreage figures for those crops and new projections on 1975 output of those crops will be made in July.

Meanwhile, the USDA is relying on existing statistical data for projecting 1975 grain production. Those statistics, largely based on March 1 planting intentions of farmers expressed in surveys, point to record harvests if poor weather doesn't intercede as it did last year.

Officials say it is much too early to

Bias Charges 'Probable' In 3 Cases

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Kings Island Amusement Park, the Golden Tee Roller Skating Center and Diamond International Corp. have been named in "probable" discrimination charges by the Ohio Civil Rights Commission.

An OCRC spokesman explained that "probable cause" is a first finding in support of an allegation.

Issuance of a formal complaint and public hearings are the next possible steps of the commission, the spokesman said.

Kings Island officials denied the park discriminated against Emily Davies, of Glendale, who said she was not hired as a ranger in the Lion area because she was a woman.

The firm said it hired persons who were more qualified.

The Roller rink said skaters are forbidden to wear headgear because of the potential for injury if it falls off.

Rabbi Gordon Glandstone charged the rink with religious discrimination by ordering him from the floor because he refused to remove his skull cap. He said others wearing headgear were permitted to continue.

Stephanie Phillips charged she was fired by Diamond International "for reasons stemming from her race and color," the OCRC chairman said.

draw conclusions about spring planting for most commodities, but weekly reports on farm activity and weather patterns do provide some idea of the over-all situation.

A report issued Tuesday, for example, said "subnormal temperatures throughout the nation slowed growth of much-needed pastures and winter wheat" last week.

Thus, as any farmer knows from experience, it is weather that sets the pattern for so much of what is produced. Last year, when foul spring weather upset planting schedules and summer drought diminished yields, grain production fell precipitously from levels predicted by USDA early in 1974.

Although weekly weather reviews taken individually do not necessarily signify future trends, the reports grow more important as farmers move into the spring planting season. Here are some of the latest reports's observations as of last weekend:

"Snow cover over much of the northern plains helped protect wheat fields from the extremely cold temperatures this late in the season. In Kansas, winter wheat growth was slow. Dry conditions still exist in western areas, leaving the crop vulnerable to wind damage."

City Board To Act On Employment

The Circleville Board of Education will act on teacher and non-certificated personnel re-employment for the 1975-76 school year. The board will also be presented two teacher resignations and one cook's retirement.

Other items at the top of the board's advance agenda are the revised negotiation policy and items agreed upon between a committee of the board and the teachers' negotiation committee. A multi-year contract policy for teachers and an increase in employe life insurance are among those items being submitted.

The extra-curricular salary schedule will also be submitted to the board for revision along with eight staff members' resignations from extra-curricular duties.

One parent has asked to present an appeal to the expulsion of a student for a second offense of smoking.

Fifteen teachers have submitted requests for professional leave.

Superintendent Fritz Jacobs is recommending to the board blacktopping for areas at three of the elementary schools. The proposed work will cost an estimated $4,817.50.

A final item on the advance agenda is a list of graduating seniors being submitted to the board for approval.

Braves Collect 12-3 Win Over Southeastern

The Logan Elm Braves banged 15 hits Tuesday in a 12-3 decision over Southeastern on the loser's baseball field.

Tim Justus started for LE on the mound and was the winning pitcher. He struck out four and walked six in five innings. Steve Rawlins relieved him in the sixth, fanning one and walking two. Scott Pontius came on in the seventh after Rawlins developed a sore arm to get the final out. They allowed a total of six hits.

Southeastern used a trio of hurlers. Gray was the starter and the loser. The three fanned two and walked four.

Jeff Reichelderfer collected two singles and a double in five trips to the plate for LE. Randy Pontius had three singles in four trips, Rob Black hit two singles, Scott Pontius one single, Chuck Cave blasted two singles and a double, Steve Rawlins and Derek Morris had one single each.

Logan Elm scored two runs in the first inning, two in the second, one in the third and seven in the sixth.

Southeastern scored one in the first, one in the third and one in the bottom of the seventh, a solo homerun by Clemmons.

The Braves have a 6-0 overall record and host Mohawk tonight. Thursday they travel to Bloom Carroll for a Mid State League game and Saturday they have a doubleheader with visiting Paint Valley.

Steve Marshall is slated to start on the mound in tonight's game with Mohawk.

A-C Aces Nip Westfall, 4-3

Amanda-Clearcreek edged Westfall, 4-3, Tuesday in a game played on the Mustangs' diamond.

The Aces tallied once in the first, twice in the fourth and plated a single run in the fifth.

Westfall scored single markers in the first, second and sixth innings.

Willie Crites opened on the hill for the Aces but was relieved by Jim Smith who got credit for the win. They gave up a total of seven hits, three walks and struck out five.

Tony Mosley went all the way for the Mustangs, allowing seven hits, four walks and fanned three.

Cloyce Hartley had a double and single for the Aces, Mike Cassill added a pair of one-baggers while Dan Burns, Jim Destadio and Bud Cordle each had a single.

Kevin Reid Paced Westfall with a pair of doubles, Mosely rapped a double and single and Greg Varney, Mack Dick and Chris Riddle each slammed a single.

Westfall is now 2-4 on the season, 1-0 in league play and will be at Southeastern tonight.

Fleet Countess Wins Feature At Lebanon

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Fleet Countess, collecting her third victory in eight starts, won the $1,000 featured pace mile at Lebanon Raceway Tuesday night by a neck in 2:06 4-5.

Winning $2 tickets paid $7.40, $5.60 and $5.60. Greenland Jay placed, paying $10 and $5.60, and Red Viking was third for $5.20.

Colonels Hold Lead In Playoffs

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Kentucky Coach Hubie Brown isn't even close to breaking out the victory champagne, despite the 2-0 lead his Colonels hold in their best-of-seven American Basketball Association playoff series with Memphis.

"Memphis seems to play all the containing teams well down there," Brown said Tuesday night after the Colonels overwhelmed the Sounds 119-105.

The teams travel to Memphis for Thursday and Friday night games in Mid-South Coliseum, the site of Kentucky's only losses to the Sounds this season. Tonight, St. Louis is at New York and Denver at Salt Lake City in other playoff games.

New York has a 1-0 edge in its series and Denver has a 2-0 lead over Salt Lake City.

In the fourth playoff series, San Antonio is at Indiana Thursday night with Indiana holding a 2-0 edge.

Brown noted that Memphis has defeated Denver twice, and New York once on the Sounds' home floor, in addition to handing the Eastern Division champion Colonels two losses.

"If we go down there and don't play aggressive basketball, we could lose," Brown said.

The Colonels played Tuesday night's game at their favored fast tempo, leading by as many as 26 points before Brown pulled the starters in the fourth period.

Louie Dampier paced the Kentucky offense with 23 points, while Artis Gilmore added 22 and Dan Issel had 20.

A crowd of 4,787 witnessed the game, up from the 4,107 which saw the opener but still less than half of the team's average Louisville draw this season of 9,061.

Tigers Nipped By Blue Lions

Circleville came up with a strong rally but fell one-run short as the Tigers dropped a 5-4 decision to visiting Washington C. H. Tuesday.

The Blue Lions jumped out to a 4-0 lead with a pair of runs in each of the first two innings and capped their scoring with a single marker in the fourth.

But, the Tigers, down 5-0, tallied two runs in the fourth on singles by Phil Roll and Tim McNaughton plus a couple of walks.

Circleville scored single markers in the fifth and sixth frames but just couldn't push across the equalizer.

Biff Bumgarner went all the way on the hill for Circleville. He allowed two earned runs, six hits, walked six and fanned nine. Van Dyke was the winning pitcher for Washington C. H.

Roll, Randy Thomas and Tim McNaughton each had two hits to account for the Tigers six safeties.

Circleville is now 1-2 and will host Hillsboro Wednesday with Phil Roll on the mound.

HIT THE DIRT—Circleville's Pam Pontious (42) races for third base as the Tiger coach Joyce O'Brien gives her the signal to hit the dirt. The Tigers dropped their season opener to Greenfield McClain, 14-12, despite a strong last inning rally.

Tiger Girls Softball Team Loses Close Tilt, 14-12

After getting off to a shaky start the Circleville girls' softball staged a tremendous last inning rally but fell two runs short as they lost a 14-12 contest to visiting Greenfield.

Greenfield tallied five times in the first and added four more in the sixth for its two big inning which put the Red and Black in the hole.

But the female Tigers refused to roll over and play dead. Going into the final frame they trailed 14-4 but put their bats to work to plate eight runs in the frame and almost pull the game out of the fire.

Sue Crist went all the way on the mound for Circleville.

Wanda Boyd led the Red and Black attack with three singles and a double, Julie Johnson had two singles, Sue Radcliff rapped a triple, double and single, Dara Hughes had a pair of one-baggers, Linda Holveck added a single, Cathy Armstrong slammed three singles, Cindy Dayhoff added a pair of walks, Pam Pontious blasted two doubles and a single, Sue Crist had a single and Kim Bensonhaver ripped a double and pair of singles.

Circleville is now 0-1 and will play at Wilmington 4:30 p.m. Thursday.

Nordiques Defeat Phoenix Roadrunners

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A scenic tour of North American airports is not the ideal way for a professional hockey team to prepare for its first-ever playoff game.

And the Nordiques took advantage of the jet-lag syndrome that hampered Phoenix Tuesday night in Quebec to defeat the weary Roadrunners 5-2 and take a 1-0 lead in their best-of-seven World Hockey Association quarter-final playoff series.

Billingham, Messersmith To Collide

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Andy Messersmith and Jack Bingham go to center ring tonight in round two of the opening battle between the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Cincinnati Reds.

The Dodgers and Reds, favorites in the National League West, meet seven times in their first 10 games this season.

The Reds took the opener Monday 2-1 in a 14-inning battle that ended on a disputed call at first base as pinch hitter George Foster beat out a slow roller to score Cesar Geronimo.

"You're always nervous about the first game," said Bingham, who had a 19-11 record last season and was 2-2 in five appearances against the Dodgers.

"I try to go over every batter in my mind," Bingham said, recalling that he was nailed for two home runs in one game last season by outfielder Jimmy Wynn.

"You try to learn by your mistakes," Messersmith is 0-3 lifetime against Cincinnati and was 0-1 last season while compiling a 20-6 record.

The Dodgers, winners of last year's National League pennant after besting Cincinnati 12-6, are not worried about dropping the opener.

"We still have another 152 games to play," said Steve Garvey.

"What it all means at this early date is determining who is better prepared. Both teams had great spring records."

Meanwhile, Cincinnati got some bad news. Shortstop Dave Concepcion is lame with a pulled groin muscle and is expected to miss tonight's game.

Braves Collect 12-3 Win Over Southeastern

The Logan Elm Braves banged 15 hits Tuesday in a 12-3 decision over Southeastern on the loser's baseball field.

Tim Justus started for LE on the mound and was the winning pitcher. He struck out four and walked six in five innings. Steve Rawlins relieved him in the sixth, fanning one and walking two. Scott Pontius came on in the seventh after Rawlins developed a sore arm to get the final out. They allowed a total of six hits.

Southeastern used a trio of hurlers. Gray was the starter and the loser. The three fanned two and walked four.

Jeff Reichelderfer collected two singles and a double in five trips to the plate for LE. Randy Pontius had three singles in four trips, Rob Black hit two singles, Scott Pontius one single, Chuck Cave blasted two singles and a double, Steve Rawlins and Derek Morris had one single each.

Logan Elm scored two runs in the first inning, two in the second, one in the third and seven in the sixth.

Southeastern scored one in the first, one in the third and one in the bottom of the seventh, a solo homerun by Clemmons.

The Braves have a 6-0 overall record and host Mohawk tonight. Thursday they travel to Bloom Carroll for a Mid State League game and Saturday they have a doubleheader with visiting Paint Valley.

Steve Marshall is slated to start on the mound in tonight's game with Mohawk.

A-C Aces Nip Westfall, 4-3

Amanda-Clearcreek edged Westfall, 4-3, Tuesday in a game played on the Mustangs' diamond.

The Aces tallied once in the first, twice in the fourth and plated a single run in the fifth.

Westfall scored single markers in the first, second and sixth innings.

Willie Crites opened on the hill for the Aces but was relieved by Jim Smith who got credit for the win. They gave up a total of seven hits, three walks and struck out five.

Tony Mosley won all the way for the Mustangs, allowing seven hits, four walks and fanned three.

Cloyce Hartley had a double and single for the Aces, Mike Cassill added a pair of one-baggers while Dan Burns, Jim Destadio and Bud Cordle each had a single.

Kevin Reid Paced Westfall with a pair of doubles, Mosely rapped a double and single and Greg Varney, Mack Dick and Chris Riddle each slammed a single.

Westfall is now 2-4 on the season, 1-0 in league play and will be at Southeastern tonight.

Youth Baseball Sets BR, LL Tryouts

Tryouts for positions on the Circleville Youth Baseball Program's Babe Ruth and Little League Major teams will be held 9 a.m. Saturday at Ted Lewis Park. Rain date will be April 19.

Managers are needed for Pony and Babe Ruth League teams. Anyone interested should contact Mearle Logan, 474-5889, or Bill Bauer, 474-7710.

Fleet Countess Wins Feature At Lebanon

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Fleet Countess, collecting her third victory in eight starts, won the $1,000 featured pace mile at Lebanon Raceway Tuesday night by a neck in 2:06 4-5.

Winning $2 tickets paid $7.40, $5.60 and $5.60. Greenland Jay placed, paying $10 and $5.60, and Red Viking was third for $5.20.

Colonels Hold Lead In Playoffs

LOUISVILLE (AP) — Kentucky Coach Hubie Brown isn't even close to breaking out the victory champagne, despite the 2-0 lead his Colonels hold in their best-of-seven American Basketball Association playoff series with Memphis.

"Memphis seems to play all the contending teams well down there," Brown said Tuesday night after the Colonels overwhelmed the Sounds 119-105.

The teams travel to Memphis for Thursday and Friday night games in Mid-South Coliseum, the site of Kentucky's only losses to the Sounds this season. Tonight, St. Louis is at New York and Denver at Salt Lake City in other playoff games.

New York has a 1-0 edge in its series and Denver has a 2-0 lead over Salt Lake City.

In the fourth playoff series, San Antonio is at Indiana Thursday night with Indiana holding a 2-0 edge.

Brown noted that Memphis has defeated Denver twice, and New York once on the Sounds' home floor, in addition to handing the Eastern Division champion Colonels two losses.

"If we go down there and don't play aggressive basketball, we could lose," Brown said.

The Colonels played Tuesday night's game at their favored fast tempo, leading by as many as 26 points before Brown pulled the starters in the fourth period.

Louie Dampier paced the Kentucky offense with 23 points, while Artis Gilmore added 22 and Dan Issel had 20.

A crowd of 4,787 witnessed the game, up from the 4,107 which saw the opener but still less than half of the team's average Louisville draw this season of 9,061.

Tigers Nipped By Blue Lions

Circleville came up with a strong rally but fell one-run short as the Tigers dropped a 5-4 decision to visiting Washington C. H. Tuesday.

The Blue Lions jumped out to a 4-0 lead with a pair of runs in each of the first two innings and capped their scoring with a single marker in the fourth.

But, the Tigers, down 5-0, tallied two runs in the fourth on singles by Phil Roll and Tim McNaughton plus a couple of walks.

Circleville scored single markers in the fifth and sixth frames but just couldn't push across the equalizer.

Biff Bungarner went all the way on the hill for Circleville. He allowed two earned runs, six hits, walked six and fanned nine. Van Dyke was the winning pitcher for Washington C. H.

Roll, Randy Thomas and Tim McNaughton each had two hits to account for the Tigers six safeties.

Circleville is now 1-2 and will host Hillsboro Wednesday with Phil Roll on the mound.

And the Nordiques took advantage of the jet-lag syndrome that hampered Phoenix Tuesday night in Quebec to defeat the weary Roadrunners 5-2 and take a 1-0 lead in their best-of-seven World Hockey Association quarter-final playoff series.

Billingham, Messersmith To Collide

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Andy Messersmith and Jack Bingham go to center ring tonight in round two of the opening battle between the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Cincinnati Reds.

The Dodgers and Reds, favorites in the National League West, meet seven times in their first 10 games this season.

The Reds took the opener Monday 2-1 in a 14-inning battle that ended on a disputed call at first base as pinch hitter George Foster beat out a slow roller to score Cesar Geronimo.

"You're always nervous about the first game," said Bingham, who had a 19-11 record last season and was 2-2 in five appearances against the Dodgers.

"I try to go over every batter in my mind," Bingham said, recalling that he was nailed for two home runs in one game last season by outfielder Jimmy Wynn.

"You try to learn by your mistakes," Messersmith is 0-3 lifetime against Cincinnati and was 0-1 last season while compiling a 20-6 record.

The Dodgers, winners of last year's National League pennant after besting Cincinnati 12-6, are not worried about dropping the opener.

"We still have another 152 games to play," said Steve Garvey.

"What it all means at this early date is determining who is better prepared. Both teams had great spring records."

Meanwhile, Cincinnati got some bad news. Shortstop Dave Concepcion is lame with a pulled groin muscle and is expected to miss tonight's game.

Robinson, Tribe Top Yankees Trout Stream Faces Problems

By HERSCHEL NISSENSEN
AP Sports Writer
Frank Robinson has something no other manager, black or white, has ... player Frank Robinson. And that's why Frank Robinson is the only manager in baseball, black or white, who has hit a home run this season. "It was a great moment, but you had to wait till the end, till the game was over," Robinson said. "Now it's even more gratifying."
Robinson had several great moments Tuesday. The first came when Rachel Robinson, widow of the first black man to play in the major leagues, threw out the first ball and said she was "proud, proud, proud to be here." Then came career home run No. 575 in his first time at bat as a big league manager.
That started the Cleveland Indians to a 5-3 victory over the New York Yankees, which was great moment No. 3, especially since it was viewed by an excited home town crowd of 56,204.
Elsewhere in the American League, the world champion Oakland A's nipped the Chicago White Sox 3-2, the Minnesota Twins crushed the Texas Rangers 11-4 and the Boston Red Sox downed the Milwaukee Brewers 5-2. The Kansas City-California game was rained out while the Baltimore-Detroit opener was postponed earlier by a snowstorm.

Robinson brought the large Cleveland crowd to its feet with his first-inning home run off New York's Doc Medich.
"It's just tremendous," Robinson said later as he contemplated the historic occasion. "I really can't explain how I feel. I've been a manager before, but this is where it's at. I couldn't think of any better way to start my new career. I was extremely pleased by the way we won. It was a team effort. The guys came from behind and played together and that's what you have to do to be successful."
Despite Robinson's dramatic homer, the Indians fell behind 3-1 in the second inning. But Boog Powell, Robinson's old Baltimore teammate, drove in two runs with a homer and double and Jack Brohamer drove in the other two with a sacrifice fly and a single. The sacrifice fly scored Powell, who opened the bottom of the second with a single.

Now Robinson can concentrate on being a manager rather than baseball's first black manager.
A's 3, White Sox 2
Vida Blue, taking over the opening game pitching assignment vacated by Catfish Hunter, allowed four hits in seven innings and center fielder Bill North cut down the tying run at the plate in the ninth as the world champion A's opened their season.
The A's took a 2-0 lead off Wilbur Wood in the second inning when Joe Rudi singled and designated hitter Billy Williams, in his first American League at-bat, doubled. The runners held as Wood retired the next two batters, but rookie second baseman Phil Garner singled them home. Oakland added the decisive run in the eighth on a walk to Sal Bando, a stolen base by pinch runner Herb Washington — who actually was picked off but beat the throw to second — and a double by Rudi.
Twins 11, Rangers 4
Designated hitter Tony Oliva's three-run homer capped a six-run Minnesota assault against 25-game winner Ferguson Jenkins in the first two innings. Larry Hise's three-run homer in the ninth made it a thoroughly disappointing evening for the 28,787 fans, largest opening game crowd since the Rangers moved from Washington to Texas in 1972.
The Twins chased Jenkins in the second inning when Oliva crashed a towering 390-foot homer after Lyman Bostock and Hise singled. Jenkins, a $175,000-a-year pitcher, lasted only 12-3 innings. He was tagged for six runs — five earned — on seven hits and also issued a pair of walks.
Red Sox 5, Brewers 2
Bob Montgomery doubled home two of Boston's three runs in the third inning and Tony Conigliaro made a triumphant return to the major leagues as the Red Sox spoiled the American League debut of Milwaukee's Hank Aaron.
Aaron, baseball's all-time home run king, and Conigliaro, who was hit in the eye by a pitch in 1967 and has been out of baseball the past 3½ years, received standing ovations.
Aaron, the Brewers' designated hitter, walked, struck out and grounded out twice. Conigliaro, Boston's DH, helped set up a first-inning run with a hit-and-run single.

WEST LIBERTY, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's only inland trout stream flows briskly north to south from artesian springs at its headwaters near Zanesfield.
For the next 25 miles or so downstream the Mad River entertains scores of fishermen while yielding hundreds of hatchery-bred rainbow and a few brown trout annually.
During the week the stream is relatively uncrowded, but on weekends it's "elbow to elbow, you almost have to fight for position," reports John Snyder, who operates the S&S Tackle Co. in West Liberty.
The mass of anglers and a "small number of troublemakers" have caused problems in the past, but strong efforts are being made to resolve them, Snyder said.
Along about 20 miles of the Mad River from Zanesfield to Urbana, only two or three land owners have their property posted against trespassing, he said.
"At one time it was all open," Snyder said. "It would be a shame to close this off because there's some real beautiful country in this valley."
Littering and property damage are the chief complaints from farmers and others in the lush rolling countryside along the stream.
In an effort to ease the problems, the state has acquired easements across private property to provide access to the river. Stiles have been installed where foot traffic is heavy to enable fishermen to cross farm fences.
The Logan County Tourist Council has been active in clean-up projects and has placed trash barrels at every county bridge across the river, Snyder said.
In addition, meetings have been and are being held among local and state officials to discuss ways of promoting angling on the Mad River without jeopardizing its future, he said.
The Ohio Division of Wildlife has stocked the river several times this spring with more than 5,000 eight to 14-inch rainbow and some three-to-five-pound breeder trout, Snyder said.
Fish are released from tank trucks over many miles of river, so good angling can be found virtually any place between Zanesfield and Urbana in West Central Ohio's Logan and Champaign counties, he reported.
Night crawlers, salmon eggs and spinners are the preferred baits, although cheese balls have their advocates, too.
Bank fishing is a favorite method, but wading is productive, also, so long as you are cautious to avoid stepping into deep holes.
Live and artificial baits should be worked in deeper water, below riffles, around undercut banks and new obstructions that provide natural cover for trout.

Golfdom's Greats Set For Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Golf's great and near great eyed each other as rivals today. Nervously, they shared a common enemy — pressure — on the eve of the 39th Masters Tournament.
"It's the only tournament I know that you start choking at the gate," said Arnold Palmer, now a graying 45, seeking to end a major victory drought that started with his fourth Masters title in 1964.
"My attitude is good. I don't feel the world is going to collapse if I don't win the Masters this year," said Tom Weiskopf, suddenly projected into the role of co-favorite with Jack Nicklaus.
Perhaps the heaviest tension of all strummed the nerves of Lee Elder, the first black man to compete here and for months the center of world-wide attention as a breaker of racial barriers.
"I do not feel like a great man in history," Elder told a presidential-style press conference Tuesday. "And that's the way I would like to keep it."
Elder pleaded to be left alone while facing the greatest challenge of his career, and added: "I am playing well enough to win if breaks go my way."
Nicklaus wore a mantle of supreme confidence — the kind you'd expect of a four-time winner — as he returned from a week-end break with his massive hitting power and putting artistry more evident than ever.

In his practice round, he almost holed out from the fairway on the ninth hole, thrilling a clubhouse gallery. Then he spotted a couple of putts about 20 feet from the hole and knocked them into the cup.
"I am putting better," he told admirers who pursued him from the ninth green to the 10th tee. "The greens are getting harder. I putt better on fast greens."
Nicklaus, winner of his last two tournaments — the Doral and Heritage — and his former Ohio State schoolmate, Weiskopf, a pole-to-pole victor in last week's Greater Greensboro Open, have been established as the players to beat for the 1975 green jacket.
There is no formal betting here, but unofficial oddsmakers have put Nicklaus and Weiskopf at 6-1, followed by Johnny Miller and defending champion Gary Player at 8-1, with Hubert Green, Hale Irwin and Lee Trevino 10-1.

Houston, Seattle Win NBA Clashes

By The Associated Press
The home court advantage helps in the National Basketball Association. But it doesn't hurt to have a good defense, either.
The Houston Rockets and Seattle SuperSonics had both Tuesday night, and as a result have a 1-0 lead in their respective, opening-round playoff series.
"I'd have to give credit to their defense," said New York Coach Red Holzman after the Knicks dropped a 99-84 decision to the Rockets in their Eastern Conference opener. "They really played well, plus the fact that we shot poorly."
"Over here, we say we had an off-night shooting. But I'd have to say it was their defense that did it."
In Seattle, the SuperSonics played what Coach Bill Russell called "our best defensive effort of the season." It resulted in a 90-77 rout of the Detroit Pistons in their Western Conference opener.
Tom Burleson held Detroit's Bob Lanier to a sub-par 15 points while scoring 19 himself.
The Rockets can win the best-of-three series and advance to the Eastern semifinals by beating New York in their pext meeting at Madison Square Garden Thursday night. The SuperSonics can do likewise in the West when they play at Detroit the same night.

A Western Conference best-of-seven semifinal series begins tonight when Chicago hosts Kansas City-Omaha. Buffalo plays at Washington Thursday night in the beginning of another Western semifinal series.
Along with Houston's glittering defense, the youthful Rockets used 22 points by Calvin Murphy to win the playoff-tested Knicks. The Rockets, in the playoffs for the first time ever, moved to a seven-point halftime lead, 46-39, by outscoring the Knicks 8-0 over the final 2:27 of the second quarter and Houston never trailed again.
Walt Frazier led the Knicks with 21 points and Earl Monroe had 13, but New York's leading scorers hit only 13 of 35 shots between them for a 37 per cent average.
The Knicks, making their ninth straight playoff appearance, pulled within seven points at 67-60 at the end of the third quarter. But then the Rockets, led by Mike Newlin and Ron Riley, pu on a fourth-quarter scoring display that spurred the Rockets to a 17-point margin. With 6:48 left in the game.
Fred Brown came off the bench to pop in 23 points for Seattle. Seattle, which led from the opening minute, held off an early fourth-quarter Detroit rally to win going away.

Mets Top Phils, 2-1

By HAL BOCK
AP Sports Writer
"I'm ecstatic!"
With those two words, Tom Seaver described his feelings after outlasting Steve Carlton as the New York Mets shaded Philadelphia 2-1 Tuesday in an opening-day clash of two of the National League's premier pitchers.
In the only other NL game, Atlanta blanked Houston 2-0. San Francisco at San Diego was rained out.
Seaver surrendered six hits, struck out nine batters and came up a winner because of two Met newcomers — Dave Kingman Joe Torre. Kingman slugged a huge home run in the fourth inning and Torre drilled the game-winning single in the bottom of the ninth.
But the main man on this blustery opening day was Seaver, who struggled to a sorry 11-11 season last year and is the pitcher on whom so much of Mets' hopes rest for 1975.
"I couldn't be happier," said the man called Tom Terrific. "I was strong all the way, throwing fairly hard with a good breaking ball. I didn't throw too many bad pitches."
The Phillies nixed him for a third-inning run on Dave Cash's double. But fourth, golfing a two-out, two-strike pitch far beyond the left field wall.

Felix Millan opened the Mets' ninth with a single — only New York's third hit and first since Kingman's king-sized homer. Then Carlton walked John Milner on four pitches and missed with his first two to Torre.
On the next pitch, Torre was swinging.
"I just wanted to hit the ball hard," he said. He did, lining it to left and sending Millan racing home with the winning run.
"It was exciting," said Torre. "Opening day always is. When it stops being exciting, I'll quit."
Braves 2, Astros 0
Carl Morton's five-hitter and Darrell Evans' RBI single in a two-run fifth inning carried the Braves past Houston. Morton retired 16 straight batters after a pair of first-inning singles before shortstop Larvell Blanks' throwing error ended the string in the seventh.
Ralph Garr singled to start the fifth against Astros' rookie Doug Konieczny. Garr moved to third when Marty Perez was safe on shortstop Roger Metzger's error, Evans singled for one run and Perez scored on Mike Lum's

Youngsters Victorious In NHL Tilts

By FRANK BROWN
AP Sports Writer
Tuesday night belonged to the youngsters as the Stanley Cup playoffs opened. They wore the uniforms of the New York Islanders, Los Angeles Kings and Pittsburgh Penguins — teams that weren't in the National Hockey League eight years ago.
At the Forum in Inglewood, Calif., 24-year-old Mike Murphy netted the overtime score that sent the venerable Toronto Maple Leafs back home with a 3-2 loss and 1-0 deficit in their series.
In Pittsburgh's Civic Arena, 19-year-old rookie Pierre Larouche brought the Penguins a 4-3 triumph over the St. Louis Blues after a pass from Vic Hadfield, who was 15 when Larouche was born.
It was different in Boston, where a rejuvenated Phil Esposito broke out of a "slump" with three goals against his younger brother, Tony, as the Bruins blasted the Chicago Black Hawks 8-2.
"I'm proud of my kids," said Islanders' Coach Al Arbour after his third-year club came back from a 2-0 deficit in the third period for a 3-2 triumph that brought the Rangers to the brink of playoff extinction. "My guys have had their ups and downs all year, but they really came through tonight."

EATON, Ohio (AP) — Residents of Woodside Drive in nearby Glenwood reached the breaking point last weekend when their street was clogged with carloads of people getting a free look at X-rated movies being shown at a drive-in theater.
"We even chased some off ourselves," said Beverly Hartman, one of a number of area residents who have been complaining for three years about the crowds and the fact that the skin flicks were beaming their way off the theater's big screen.
This time Preble County Sheriff Jan Spitzer, who said he was flooded with calls, moved in and shut down the theater. He charged the operator with obscene pandering.
Mrs. Hartman said Woodside Drive, which runs alongside the theater, was so crowded with cars an emergency vehicle would not have been able to get to the homes.
In addition, she said, "we've had to clean up the debris and filth they throw on our lawns. We feel it's a violation of our rights."
Final Sundry Claims Paid
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A long chapter in Ohio's legislative history was closed Tuesday with final approval by the House of a bill to pay about $831,000 in sundry claims against the state.
It was the last bill to come from the now defunct Sundry Claims Board, which gave way Jan. 1 to a new State Court of Claims.
The final measure—which now goes to the governor—calls for an appropriation of about $831,000 to pay 330 claims, some of them pending for the past several years. The new court can settle such claims of $1,000 or less administratively. Otherwise, they will go through the judicial process.
Besides establishing the new court, the Jan. 1 enactment did away with the state's immunity from lawsuits—a doctrine that transcended statehood and in fact dated back to the crowned heads of Europe.

Data Processing Measure Pushed
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Seeking to bring Ohio's 88 county courthouses from "the quill pen to computers", state senators voted Tuesday to expand the memberships of county data processing boards.
Sen. Robert D. Freeman, D-29 Canton, won overwhelming support of the bill which adds recorders, court clerks, sheriffs, and election board members to boards now comprised of the treasurer, a county commissioner, and the auditor.
Freeman said the addition of those offices is needed to accommodate those whose duties are "becoming more and more dependent on computers." It represents an effort to bring county offices, especially election boards, from the quill pen to computers," he said.

The runners held as Wood retired the next two batters, but rookie second baseman Phil Garner singled them home. Oakland added the decisive run in the eighth on a walk to Sal Bando, a stolen base by pinch runner Herb Washington — who actually was picked off but beat the throw to second — and a double by Rudi.

Twins 11, Rangers 4
Designated hitter Tony Oliva's three-run homer capped a six-run Minnesota assault against 25-game winner Ferguson Jenkins in the first two innings. Larry Hise's three-run homer in the ninth made it a thoroughly disappointing evening for the 28,787 fans, largest opening game crowd since the Rangers moved from Washington to Texas in 1972.

The Twins chased Jenkins in the second inning when Oliva crashed a towering 390-foot homer after Lyman Bostock and Hise singled. Jenkins, a $175,000-a-year pitcher, lasted only 12-3 innings. He was tagged for six runs — five earned — on seven hits and also issued a pair of walks.

Red Sox 5, Brewers 2
Bob Montgomery doubled home two of Boston's three runs in the third inning and Tony Conigliaro made a triumphant return to the major leagues as the Red Sox spoiled the American League debut of Milwaukee's Hank Aaron.

Aaron, baseball's all-time home run king, and Conigliaro, who was hit in the eye by a pitch in 1967 and has been out of baseball the past 3½ years, received standing ovations.

Aaron, the Brewers' designated hitter, walked, struck out and grounded out twice. Conigliaro, Boston's DH, helped set up a first-inning run with a hit-and-run single.

Golfdom's Greats Set For Masters

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Golf's great and near great eyed each other as rivals today. Nervously, they shared a common enemy — pressure — on the eve of the 39th Masters Tournament.

"It's the only tournament I know that you start choking at the gate," said Arnold Palmer, now a graying 45, seeking to end a major victory drought that started with his fourth Masters title in 1964.

"My attitude is good. I don't feel the world is going to collapse if I don't win the Masters this year," said Tom Weiskopf, suddenly projected into the role of co-favorite with Jack Nicklaus.

Perhaps the heaviest tension of all strummed the nerves of Lee Elder, the first black man to compete here and for months the center of world-wide attention as a breaker of racial barriers.

"I do not feel like a great man in history," Elder told a presidential-style press conference Tuesday. "And that's the way I would like to keep it."

Elder pleaded to be left alone while facing the greatest challenge of his career, and added: "I am playing well enough to win if breaks go my way."

Nicklaus wore a mantle of supreme confidence — the kind you'd expect of a four-time winner — as he returned from a week-end break with his massive hitting power and putting mastery more evident than ever.

In his practice round, he almost holed out from the fairway on the ninth hole, thrilling a clubhouse gallery. Then he spotted a couple of putts about 20 feet from the hole and knocked them into the cup.

"I am putting better," he told admirers who pursued him from the ninth green to the 10th tee. "The greens are getting harder. I putt better on fast greens."

Nicklaus, winner of his last two tournaments — the Doral and Heritage — and his former Ohio State schoolmate, Weiskopf, a pole-to-pole victor in last week's Greater Greensboro Open, have been established as the players to beat for the 1975 green jacket.

There is no formal betting here, but unofficial oddsmakers have put Nicklaus and Weiskopf at 6-1, followed by Johnny Miller and defending champion Gary Player at 8-1, with Hubert Green, Hale Irwin and Lee Trevino 10-1.

Houston, Seattle Win NBA Clashes

By The Associated Press
The home court advantage helps in the National Basketball Association. But it doesn't hurt to have a good defense, either.

The Houston Rockets and Seattle SuperSonics had both Tuesday night, and as a result have a 1-0 lead in their respective, opening-round playoff series.

"I'd have to give credit to their defense," said New York Coach Red Holzman after the Knicks dropped a 99-84 decision to the Rockets in their Eastern Conference opener. "They really played well, plus the fact that we shot poorly."

"Over here, we say we had an off-night shooting. But I'd have to say it was their defense that did it."

In Seattle, the SuperSonics played what Coach Bill Russell called "our best defensive effort of the season." It resulted in a 90-77 rout of the Detroit Pistons in their Western Conference opener.

Tom Burleson held Detroit's Bob Lanier to a sub-par 15 points while scoring 19 himself.

The Rockets can win the best-of-three series and advance to the Eastern semifinals by beating New York in their next meeting at Madison Square Garden Thursday night. The SuperSonics can do likewise in the West when they play at Detroit the same night.

A Western Conference best-of-seven semifinal series begins tonight when Chicago hosts Kansas City-Omaha. Buffalo plays at Washington Thursday night in the beginning of another Western semifinal series.

Along with Houston's glittering defense, the youthful Rockets used 22 points by Calvin Murphy to who the playoff-tested Knicks. The Rockets, in the playoffs for the first time ever, moved to a seven-point halftime lead, 46-39, by outscoring the Knicks 8-0 over the final 2:27 of the second quarter and Houston never trailed again.

Walt Frazier led the Knicks with 21 points and Earl Monroe had 13, but New York's leading scorers hit only 13 of 35 shots between them for a 37 per cent average.

The Knicks, making their ninth straight playoff appearance, pulled within seven points at 67-60 at the end of the third quarter. But then the Rockets, led by Mike Newlin and Ron Riley, pu on a fourth-quarter scoring display that spurred the Rockets to a 17-point margin. With 6:48 left in the game.

Fred Brown came off the bench to pop in 23 points for Seattle. Seattle, which led from the opening minute, held off an early fourth-quarter Detroit rally to win going away.

Mets Top Phils, 2-1

By HAL BOCK
AP Sports Writer
"I'm ecstatic!"

With those two words, Tom Seaver described his feelings after outlasting Steve Carlton as the New York Mets shaded Philadelphia 2-1 Tuesday in an opening-day clash of two of the National League's premier pitchers.

In the only other NL game, Atlanta blanked Houston 2-0. San Francisco at San Diego was rained out.

Seaver surrendered six hits, struck out nine batters and came up a winner because of two Met newcomers — Dave Kingman Joe Torre. Kingman slugged a huge home run in the fourth inning and Torre drilled the game-winning single in the bottom of the ninth.

But the main man on this blustery opening day was Seaver, who struggled to a sorry 11-11 season last year and is the pitcher on whom so much of Mets' hopes rest for 1975.

"I couldn't be happier," said the man called Tom Terrific. "I was strong all the way, throwing fairly hard with a good breaking ball. I didn't throw too many bad pitches."

The Phillies nicked him for a third-inning run on Dave Cash's double. But fourth, golfing a two-out, two-strike pitch far beyond the left field wall.

Felix Millan opened the Mets' ninth with a single — only New York's third hit and first since Kingman's king-sized homer. Then Carlton walked John Milner on four pitches and missed with his first two to Torre.

On the next pitch, Torre was swinging.

"I just wanted to hit the ball hard," he said. He did, lining it to left and sending Millan racing home with the winning run.

"It was exciting," said Torre. "Opening day always is. When it stops being exciting, I'll quit."

Braves 2, Astros 0

Carl Morton's five-hitter and Darrell Evans' RBI single in a two-run fifth inning carried the Braves past Houston. Morton retired 16 straight batters after a pair of first-inning singles before shortstop Larvell Blanks' throwing error ended the string in the seventh.

Ralph Garr singled to start the fifth against Astros' rookie Doug Koniceny. Garr moved to third when Marty Perez was safe on shortstop Roger Metzger's error. Evans singled for one run and Perez scored on Mike Lum's

WEST LIBERTY, Ohio (AP) — Ohio's only inland trout stream flows briskly north to south from artesian springs at its headwaters near Zanesfield.

For the next 25 miles or so downstream the Mad River entertains scores of fishermen while yielding hundreds of hatchery-bred rainbow and a few brown trout annually.

During the week the stream is relatively uncrowded, but on weekends it's "elbow to elbow, you almost have to fight for position," reports John Snyder, who operates the S&S Tackle Co. in West Liberty.

The mass of anglers and a "small number of troublemakers" have caused problems in the past, but strong efforts are being made to resolve them, Snyder said.

Along about 20 miles of the Mad River from Zanesfield to Urbana, only two or three land owners have their property posted against trespassing, he said.

"At one time it was all open," Snyder said. "It would be a shame to close this off because there's some real beautiful country in this valley."

Littering and property damage are the chief complaints from farmers and others in the lush rolling countryside along the stream.

In an effort to ease the problems, the state has acquired easements across private property to provide access to the river. Stiles have been installed where foot traffic is heavy to enable fishermen to cross farm fences.

The Logan County Tourist Council has been active in clean-up projects and has placed trash barrels at every county bridge across the river, Snyder said.

In addition, meetings have been and are being held among local and state officials to discuss ways of promoting angling on the Mad River without jeopardizing its future, he said.

The Ohio Division of Wildlife has stocked the river several times this spring with more than 5,000 eight to 14-inch rainbow and some three-to-five-pound breeder trout, Snyder said.

Fish are released from tank trucks over many miles of river, so good angling can be found virtually any place between Zanesfield and Urbana in West Central Ohio's Logan and Champaign counties, he reported.

Night crawlers, salmon eggs and spinners are the preferred baits, although cheese balls have their advocates, too.

Bank fishing is a favorite method, but wading is productive, also, so long as you are cautious to avoid stepping into deep holes.

Live and artificial baits should be worked in deeper water, below riffles, around undercut banks and new obstructions that provide natural cover for trout.

X-Rated 'Free' Shows Cut Off

EATON, Ohio (AP) — Residents of Woodside Drive in nearby Glenwood reached the breaking point last weekend when their street was clogged with carloads of people getting a free look at X-rated movies being shown at a drive-in theater.

"We even chased some off ourselves," said Beverly Hartman, one of a number of area residents who have been complaining for three years about the crowds and the fact that the skin flicks were beaming their way off the theater's big screen.

This time Preble County Sheriff Jan Spittler, who said he was flooded with calls, moved in and shut down the theater. He charged the operator with obscene pandering.

Mrs. Hartman said Woodside Drive, which runs alongside the theater, was so crowded with cars an emergency vehicle would not have been able to get to the homes.

In addition, she said, "we've had to clean up the debris and filth they throw on our lawns. We feel it's a violation of our rights."

Final Sundry Claims Paid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A long chapter in Ohio's legislative history was closed Tuesday with final approval by the House of a bill to pay about $831,000 in sundry claims against the state.

It was the last bill to come from the now defunct Sundry Claims Board, which gave way Jan. 1 to a new State Court of Claims.

The final measure—which now goes to the governor—calls for an appropriation of about $831,000 to pay 330 claims, some of them pending for the past several years. The new court can settle such claims of $1,000 or less administratively. Otherwise, they will go through the judicial process.

Besides establishing the new court, the Jan. 1 enactment did away with the state's immunity from lawsuits—a doctrine that transcended statehood and in fact dated back to the crowned heads of Europe.

Data Processing Measure Pushed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Seeking to bring Ohio's 88 county courthouses from "the quill pen to computers", state senators voted Tuesday to expand the memberships of county data processing boards.

Sen. Robert D. Freeman, D-29 Canton, won overwhelming support of the bill which adds recorders, court clerks, sheriffs, and election board members to boards now comprised of the treasurer, a county commissioner, and the auditor.

Freeman said the addition of those offices is needed to accommodate those whose duties are "becoming more and more dependent on computers." It represents an effort to bring county offices, "especially election boards, from the quill pen to computers," he said.

Youngsters Victorious In NHL Tilts

By FRANK BROWN
AP Sports Writer

Tuesday night belonged to the youngsters as the Stanley Cup playoffs opened. They wore the uniforms of the New York Islanders, Los Angeles Kings and Pittsburgh Penguins — teams that weren't in the National Hockey League eight years ago.

At the Forum in Inglewood, Calif., 24-year-old Mike Murphy netted the overtime score that sent the venerable Toronto Maple Leafs back home with a 3-2 loss and 1-0 deficit in their series.

In Pittsburgh's Civic Arena, 19-year-old rookie Pierre Larouche brought the Penguins a 4-3 triumph over the St. Louis Blues after a pass from Vic Hadfield, who was 15 when Larouche was born.

It was different in Boston, where a rejuvenated Phil Esposito broke out of a "slump" with three goals against his younger brother, Tony, as the Bruins blasted the Chicago Black Hawks 8-2.

"I'm proud of my kids," said Islanders' Coach Al Arbour after his third-year club came back from a 2-0 deficit in the third period for a 3-2 triumph that brought the Rangers to the brink of playoff extinction. "My guys have had their ups and downs all year, but they really came through tonight."

Ebonite Bowling Tournament Starts

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A mammoth field of 232 starts rolling today in the $85,000 Ebonite Open Bowling Tournament at Imperial Lanes despite the fact that several star performers have passed this event.

Another competition—the $125,000 Firestone Tournament of Champions—remains on the winter tour schedule.

Leading performer Earl Anthony, with over $45,000 in earnings and a pair of titles, will miss the Ebonite to reign as grand marshal in a week-long festival back home in the Tacoma, Wash., area.

Jim LeClair Faces Operation

CINCINNATI (AP) — Cincinnati middle linebacker Jim LeClair will undergo surgery on his right foot to alleviate the problem which kept the apparent heir to Bill Berge sidelined for much of the 1974 season.

The surgery for the former University of North Dakota player was set for today at Oklahoma City, the Bengals said.

The ailment was believed to be a sprain aggravated by tendonitis during the season. Berge was traded to the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League last season.

The first King of all England was Egbert who reigned from 827-839.

Mossbacks were men who, during the Civil War, hid themselves in swamps to avoid being drafted into the Southern Army.

Your Horoscope

Tiger
By FRANCIS DRAKE
Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

FOR THURSDAY
ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20): Your innate aggressiveness will prove an advantage in conducting day's activities. Don't go overboard and alienate friends or associates, however.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21): A complex situation indicated. Play for time until certain factors are cleared up. This is one time when just "standing by" will prove beneficial.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21): If you know you're on the right track, stay there; don't go off on tangents without good reason. Curb a prevalent tendency toward restlessness.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23): Opportunities in a new field will interest you considerably. Study well—if only to grasp as an avocation.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23): A friend may propose a mutual investment. Better say no! This will not be a good period for venturing.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23): Care needed in matters of communication. Misinterpretation of a letter or message could lead to errors or misunderstandings.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23): Shun breakneck speed, but neither delay nor be tardy in action. Both extremes, and others, must be curbed. Group interests, partnerships favored.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 23): Put past doubts, disappointments behind you; they only put limits on future success. Stress your versatility; you could now add the "twist" that boosts projects to success.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21): This may not be a spectacular day, but it offers some gains and much pleasure. Start with the will to make it better than ever and you will be happy.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20): Analyses, conjectures, decisions must be given plenty of time in order to prevent errors. Be alert.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19): It may not be easy to appreciate all suggestions and directives but, with all your strength and self-confidence, back those you know to be timely and well thought-out.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20): A good spot for your intuitive forces, your ingenuity, alertness and inventiveness. Do use them for sound purposes.

YOU BORN TODAY have been endowed with a fine mind, a great love of beauty and a lively imagination; could succeed in almost any of the arts, but could reach the greatest heights in painting, music or the theater. Literature is also a fine outlet for your creative impulses and, in this connection, you could especially succeed in promotion or propaganda — the latter because you are usually involved in one "cause" or another. Working for causes, however, your zeal is some times misdirected and you could make enemies. Watch out for this. Birthdate of: William Hazlitt, Brit. critic; William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army; Clare Boothe Luce, author, playwright, stateswoman.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

Red Missile Boats Near U.S. Fleet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The North Vietnamese navy has moved a small number of highspeed missile-firing boats to a base near South Vietnam, U.S. intelligence sources report.

The sources said the presence of even a small number of the Komar class boats represents a potential threat to U.S. naval vessels operating in the area off South Vietnam. There are more than 25 U.S. Navy ships and some 4,000 Marines within a few days' sailing time from South Vietnam and Cambodia.

Although intelligence specialists said a North Vietnamese attack on American ships would be illogical, they warned that the possibility cannot be dismissed.

The Russian-built Komar class boats are armed with Styx missiles, the same type used by the Egyptian navy to sink an Israeli destroyer in the 1967 Mideast war.

According to the intelligence report, North Vietnamese missile boats have been seen recently at Quang Khe on the North Vietnamese Panhandle coast about 65 miles above the old demilitarized zone.

Previously, the North Vietnamese have kept their missile-firing craft near Haiphong more than 200 miles farther north.

The last time the U.S. Navy clashed with North Vietnamese craft was in April 1972 when warships shelling the coast above the DMZ were reported attacked by patrol boats and MIG jet fighters.

At that time, the U.S. command in Saigon said the guided-missile frigate Sterett was believed to have sunk two of the enemy boats.

Komar-class boats, displacing 100 tons, can travel at speeds up to 40 knots. Each boat carries twin launchers for Styx missiles with a range of about 15 miles. Komars also are armed with anti-aircraft guns.

Meanwhile, it was learned that the return home of the U.S. nuclear-powered carrier Enterprise is being delayed while the United States prepares for possible evacuation of Americans from South Vietnam. The Enterprise and four escorts are now in the South China Sea.

'Orphans' Syndrome Seen In Children

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The solemn children of war touch and grasp and cling. They love to be held. They are suffering the "Orphans' Syndrome."

"So many of these children have the orphans' syndrome and suffer severe emotional deprivation. They have unusual needs for love," says Dr. Alex Stalcup, supervising physician of "Operation Babylift" here.

Stalcup has watched nearly 900 Vietnamese children being processed at the Army's Presidio. They suffer from pneumonia and chicken pox, malnutrition, stomach worms and broken limbs. About 100 have been hospitalized.

But of all the privations of war, these children — called Thuy or T-21 or even "No Name" — suffer most from the privations of heart.

"These babies and little children have a special way of grasping, reaching out and holding onto love," says Stalcup, chief resident at the University of California Medical Center here.

Even some older children were carried like babies off the buses that brought them here Tuesday from Travis Air Force Base. They stared and wrapped their thin arms and legs around volunteers.

"It's a fairly profound need and

10 States Meet Goals

WASHINGTON (AP) — Only 10 states met their goal in a federal crackdown on welfare errors last year, but state and federal taxpayers still saved $62 million through the program, officials say.

Taxpayers could save another $200 million during the first half of this year if savings continue as in 1974, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare said Tuesday.

However, James S. Dwight, administrator of HEW's family welfare program, acknowledged that the original goal of a $514.7 million saving over 12 months could not be met. "Maybe we expected too much too soon," he said.

Dwight said the only states that met their interim year-end goals for reducing welfare rates of ineligibility, overpayment and underpayment were Kentucky, Nevada, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Pennsylvania, Texas, Vermont, Virginia and West Virginia.

Indiana Budget Stalemated

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — The ball is in the Republicans' court as the stalemate over a state budget continues.

Tuesday, the Democrats' chief negotiator walked out of a conference committee meeting after Republicans refused his demand to consider only the House version of the budget.

The Democratic-controlled House approved a one-year spending program, while the Republican-controlled Senate passed a two-year budget.

Rep. Spencer Schanitter, D-Madison, chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, offered a compromise before walking out of the meeting. It was for two-year funding of the highway and construction bills but one year for the operating budget.

Sen. Lawrence Borst, R-Indianapolis, Senate Finance chairman, called it unacceptable.

Young Life Schedules Activities

The Circleville Chapter of Young Life will meet 8 p.m. Thursday, 165 E. Main St., above the library in Memorial Hall. Campaigners will meet 6:45 p.m. Thursday at 367 E. Main St.

Youth planning to attend the weekend camp at Camp Willson in Bellefontaine will leave 5:30 p.m. Friday from 367 E. Main St. Campers should bring the remaining payment for camp expenses. The bus will return to Circleville 5 p.m. Sunday.

The miss-match meeting is scheduled for April 17.

The local chapter of Young Life will attend the all-city rally in Columbus April 22. Any youth planning to attend summer camps in Colorado, New York or Canada are to have a $25 deposit at that time. Transportation will leave 6:45 p.m. from 367 E. Main St. for the event.

Members of Young Life are going to participate in the National Association for Retarded Citizens Hike-Bike and the Cancer Bike-A-Thon.

Young Life is a non-denominational organization for students, grades 9-12.

Advisors working with the local group are Greg Brown, Bob Bensonhaver, Beezie Anderson and Bill Oliver.

131 Offenses Reported During March

Pickaway County Sheriff's Deputies investigated 100 accidents during the month of March raising 1975's total to 151.

Two accidents resulted in three fatalities with 45 persons injured in 27 accidents.

Reckless operation and speed resulted in 19 accidents each, and failure to have the car under control was blamed for 15 wrecks.

Statistics show that the time period between 6 p.m. and 7 p.m. Saturday was the most hazardous to drivers.

The township of Circleville recorded 14 accidents, there were 12 wrecks in Darby Twp., 11 wrecks in Saltcreek Twp. and 10 accidents each in Walnut and Harrison Twps.

The office logged 131 offense reports during March, more than doubling the two preceding months, 30 for breaking and entering, 54 for theft, 31 for vandalism and 16 miscellaneous offenses. Deputies also compiled 338 aid and incident reports, 817 for the year. Majority of the total were checking suspicious cars and persons and miscellaneous reports.

The Department processed 290 papers which were served by the Sheriff's Deputies.

Of the 142 arrests made during the month of March, 36 were for misdemeanor, 29 for felony, 20 juvenile and 57 traffic.

Prisoners committed to the Pickaway County jail included 88 adult males, three adult females, 11 juvenile males and three juvenile females for a total of 105 prisoners.

Three prisoners were conveyed to the Ohio State Reformatory, two to the Ohio State Penitentiary, one committed to the Columbus State Hospital and three juveniles to the juvenile diagnostic center.

The total miles traveled by deputies in cruisers answering complaints, serving process and general patrol was 37,458.

Communications received 4041 telephone calls and sent and received 6020 radio messages. Calls requesting Sheriff's units numbered 514.

Registration Set At Scioto Elementary

Pre-school registration for kindergarten and first grade will be held at Scioto Elementary School at Commercial Point, April 17 and 18 at 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. for those who have been asked to attend this school for the coming year.

The age requirements are five years and six years of age as of or before Sept. 30, respectively. Parents are asked to bring health records and birth certificates.

Pickaway County Health Department will be available to go over health records and immunization requirements for public school attendance.

Preparations are being made for a successful first year experience in school situation for these youngsters.

This pre-school registration will give the school officials information needed to make plans to meet the educational needs of these children.

Man Hurt When Cycle Hits Car

Norman H. Bissel, 54, Columbus, was treated at Berger Hospital for injuries he suffered when his motorcycle hit a parked car on E. Ohio St. 5:28 p.m. Tuesday.

Circleville Police said Bissel was apparently pulling from the General Electric Co. parking lot when he struck a car owned by Forrest Webster, 218 E. Walnut St.

Bissel, who was apparently having some engine trouble with the motorcycle, said the engine started to sputter and stall when he pulled onto Ohio St.

The motor apparently took hold as he was stopped in the path of an oncoming car, causing him to lose control and crash into the parked vehicle.

Police Check CB Radio Theft

Circleville Police are investigating the theft of a CB radio and vandalism to a truck cover.

John Strawser, 401 E. Ohio St., reported that thieves entered his locked pickup truck after midnight Tuesday by prying the left wing.

They used tools to remove a Lafayette CB radio valued at $150.

William Tootle, 214 W. High St., said that vandals put a five-foot slit in the bed cover of his pickup truck Tuesday night or Wednesday morning.

Damage was estimated at $40.

Service Council Hears Clevenger

The Pickaway County Community Services Council met Tuesday during a noon luncheon at the Episcopal Church.

New associates were introduced to members present. Sharon Eyerma has been selected for the Information and Referral Services in Pickaway County. She will be available to provide any information on any community service organization.

Bonnie McKutcheon has been hired to work with the Pickaway County Community Action Outreach Program.

Ohio State University student Sherry Tarbill is completing her field placement with the Pickaway County Children's Services.

Lemar Jay Clevenger, director of the program for the Mentally Retarded, presented the program, "What We're Doing at Brook-Yates School".

He showed a slide presentation of the various activities occurring at the school provided for Pickaway County's mentally retarded.

Clevenger noted that the building was purchased from the Circleville City School System with plans to expand in the near future. The expansion will house the Pickaway County Workshop.

He made a distinct definition between mental health and mental retardation noting that mental health is an emotional problem where mental retardation is an individual who's intelligence is below 50.

The director described the home training program, the pre-school, modified school program and the county workshop program for members present. He noted that the school program is structured for the individual. One adult works with a maximum of two students and most of the time works on a one-on-one basis.

He emphasized the modified school program, the monosory method, speech therapy, the behavior modification and body management methods of working with the students.

Members were reminded of the April 21 meeting at the courthouse.

And all we came in for were some onion sets!

"Really, that's all we were looking for when we stopped at the LANDMARK Town & Country Center. But then we saw what a variety of things they had — at prices we could afford — and one thing just led to another!"

"LANDMARK's selection is great — mowers, tillers and power equipment, Lawn Pep, dusts and sprays, Plant Pep, dusters and sprayers, peat moss, garden tools, gloves, hose, sprinklers, garden seeds, plants, fence, carts, wheelbarrows, grass seed — you name it, they have it, all under one roof."

"Oh yeah, we forgot the onion sets. But we'll get 'em next time. I know we'll be going back to LANDMARK."
